Thrive in Color Devika Brij,2024-05-21 According to research 60 percent of your overall career success hinges on your ability to self advocate However as a professional of color communicating your value and contributions stepping up for opportunities and commanding the salary you deserve may feel like your biggest challenge too

Author Devika Brij is here to show you that it doesn't have to be this way. As the CEO of Brij the Gap and consultant to multiple Fortune 50 companies, Brij's proven tools and strategies have helped thousands of underrepresented professionals create the exact careers, salaries, and work-life balance they desire despite the institutional and systemic barriers arrayed against them. Thrive in Color goes beyond motivation to address the specific action steps needed to proactively design and manage your career trajectory and bridge the gap between where you are and where you want to be. In this comprehensive playbook for professional empowerment, you'll learn: How to create a personal brand regardless of your current role or level of seniority; Why you need to own your narrative for career advancement instead of letting others create it by default; How to create a powerful elevator pitch and executive summary that will clearly convey the value you drive at work; How to strategically manage your relationships with your leaders to reach your career goals; Master your mind to alleviate imposture syndrome; How to effectively cultivate your network of advocates, including sponsors and mentors; How to navigate unsafe spaces with managers and colleagues; The keys to mastering negotiation; How to exit gracefully when your current role or company no longer fits. In the end, our success isn't only for us. It's for every person who looks like us, who is coming up behind us. By taking responsibility for our career trajectory, we make it easier for others to thrive as well.

Partnering in Action Diane K. Fasel, 2000. There are many terms for partnering: collaboration, team, joint venture, strategic alliance, and these take on numerous forms such as company-company partnering, company-supplier partnering, company-customer partnering, collaboration between departments within an organization, or between organizations. In today's marketplace, partnering is on the increase and it needs attention to be successful. This is an accessible manual which identifies key partnering-friendly characteristics for organizations and presents practical examples to demonstrate how to devise the right strategy for any situation.

Make Meetings Matter Charlie Hawkins, 2008-08-15. Meetings should drive results. Instead, they drive most people crazy. Make Meetings Matter will help you rethink the role of meetings in your organization and enable you to: Avoid unnecessary and useless meetings; Keep participants engaged and energized; Keep the agenda on track; Leverage technology; Ensure follow-up action is taken. Based on the author's experience as a marketing executive, business owner, consultant, and facilitator, this book is written in a down-to-earth, practical style. Hawkins offers insightful strategies and easy-to-implement tips to help you achieve the outcomes you desire in every meeting. Also included are anecdotes and war stories from Hawkins' involvement in thousands of meetings in Fortune 100 companies, small businesses, and nonprofit groups. Make Meetings Matter is an invaluable guide for leaders, managers, facilitators, and participants who want to improve the effectiveness of every meeting, no matter what the topic or desired outcome.
