Dawe,Ian McTaggart-Cowan,John Cooper,Gary W. Kaiser,Michael McNall,2007-10-01 This first volume of a remarkable four volume set on the birds of British Columbia covers eight six species of nonpasserines from loons through to waterfowl Detailed species accounts provide unprecedented coverage of these birds presenting a wealth of information on the ornithological history habitat breeding habits migratory movements seasonality and distribution patterns Introductory chapters look at the province s ornithological history its environment and the methodology used in the volumes Climate Hope David Geselbracht,2024-10-19 Through extensive research and reporting this boundary crossing and highly readable survey of efforts to tackle climate change aims to replace our paralyzing fears with a restored sense of hope and determination Climate change is a problem so enormous and complex with threats so frightening in their implications that many of us fend off confusion and hopelessness by simply turning away There are jobs to do children to raise bills to pay Meanwhile with delayed action missed targets and increasingly dire reports at the international level a notion that the crisis is intractable continues to spread And the proposed solutions can be just as daunting They often involve jargon about gigatons of carbon and kilowatt hours of electricity In a deeply polarized political environment any sense of the common purpose required to make these work seems to dissolve into denial or paralysis With all this fear and conflict the question must be asked How do we find the tools and equally important the hope we need to tackle such a wickedly difficult issue In Climate Hope journalist David Geselbracht blends in depth research expert interviews and on the ground reporting in multiple countries revealing remarkable efforts to identify the causes and impacts of climate change and devise crucial ways to address them Geselbracht brings the reader to the chaotic 2021 UN Climate Change Conference in Glasgow as well as to giant heating ducts below the city of Copenhagen and to wildfire scorched landscapes in Western Canada to name just a few sites The scale of the challenge is clear in the range of fields he covers from glaciology and climate science to law and diplomacy But in drawing these approaches together he shares stories of hope awe and wonder that encourage us to confront this long term world warping phenomenon with a renewed sense of purpose and possibility

Critical Hope Kari Grain, PhD,2022-05-03 Introducing the 7 principles for practicing critical hope because hope isn t something you have it s something you do Each person has a unique ever changing relationship to hope Hope alone can be transformational but in moments of despair or when you re up against profound injustice it isn t enough on its own Hope without action is at best naive At its worst it tricks you into giving up the power and agency you have to change systems that cause suffering Enter critical hope a spark of passion an abiding belief that transformation is not just possible but vital This is hope in action a vibrant engaged practice and a commitment to honoring transformative potential across a vast spectrum of experience Dr Kari Grain PhD offers 7 principles for practicing critical hope Hope is necessary but hope alone is not enough Critical hope is not something you have it s something you practice Critical hope is messy uncomfortable and full of contradictions Critical hope is intimately entangled with the body and the land Critical hope requires bearing witness to social and historical trauma Critical hope requires interruptions and invitations Anger and grief have a seat at the table The principles for practicing critical hope are not what you might think they confront toxic positivity and take up discomfort social injustices and an ethos of hospitality toward anger and grief But held in this same space is a love for connection and an honoring of what makes you feel alive Inspired by her global research teaching experiences and education curriculum taught at the University of British Columbia Dr Grain shows that to cultivate critical hope and combat despair you need to show up with your whole self in all its messy passionate vibrant complexity
