Tears in the Flag Siddharth Bindra, 2020-10-06 Every American has an immigrant story even if it may not be their own America is the land of immigrants but immigration patterns have changed quite drastically from Western Europe to Eastern Europe to Asia There has not been a major immigration reform since 1986 and every law since has been made to control and stem the flow of new immigrants The Supreme Court just ruled on the legality of DACA Deferred Action for Childhood arrivals yet creating no pathway to citizenship The Dream Act has been tossed around since 2001 with no timeline and lives hanging in the balance This story covers one such life Following the sudden departure of his mother Arjun finds himself stuck in America as an undocumented immigrant at the age of twelve His father s immigration petition has failed putting the entire family at a crossroads and in the spotlight of a DHS investigation Arjun must now figure out how to navigate his new reality without any clear possibility of a future in America This story is one of many unheard voices that have spent the last few decades hidden in the shadows fearing repercussions if they speak out cornered with every new legislation and administration that fails to create a solution for over eleven million people I felt like I had lost my ability to speak and it was as if there were a giant stone sitting on my chest as I struggled to breathe The unraveling of my parents lives and our circumstances left me speechless My fate was going to be decided by the people who were in the middle of a panic attack But thank god for Bibi my mom left alone She had made her decision the moment the immigration officer knocked on our apartment door and nothing was going to change her mind If I had known that I wouldn t see my mother again for more than a decade I would have cried my eyes out and begged her not to leave I was in shock and I was afraid I had never felt so helpless as when I roamed around the airport terminal forgetting where I was or what was happening Even though Sonya was so young she would not let go of Mom Somehow she understood more than me that we needed to make an effort to keep our mother with us In the end Mom hugged Sonya and me tightly before walking toward the security checkpoint tears running down her face She kept looking back and we didn't move until we lost sight of her I wish I had yelled loudly Mom don't go But I did nothing I do not even remember the car ride back home it was as if everything after that moment stopped mattering One has to wonder did my mom know at the time that this would be the beginning of thirteen plus years of exile To be accurate it would be thirteen years five months and four days before my mom would return to us in America and what happened during that time sets the foundation for this story Writing and Developing Your College Textbook Mary Ellen Lepionka, 2008 This is the comprehensively revised second edition of a popular professional book on textbook writing and finding one's way in the higher education publishing world for academic authors and editors college instructors and instructional designers The second edition has two new chapters on the latest industry trends such as the pricing revolt open access movement and wiki textbook phenomenon and on the use of learning objectives to structure textbook package development Every chapter features new sections links forms models or examples from an even greater range of college courses Contains updated and expanded appendices glossary entries references bibliography entries and index BISAC Language Arts Disciplines Authorship and Publishing Exploring Computer Science Class 8 Sayan Banerjee, Swati Goel, Goyal Brothers Prakashan, 2020-04-01 Goyal Brothers Prakashan A Subject Guide to Quality Web Sites Paul R.
