Boyer, 2014-10-21 The Roman Catholic Church issued its first modern one volume Lectionary a book of biblical texts assigned for every day of the year in 1970 in response to the Second Vatican Council's call for a greater fare of Scripture during Mass By the time the Lectionary was revised and published between 1998 and 2002 it had grown to four volumes Because of the revision many weekday celebrations of saints were assigned texts that had not been so in the 1970 Lectionary Because of the Lectionary's success many other Christian denominations adopted and adapted the Lectionary to fit their own needs Thus Anglicans Episcopalians Presbyterians Methodists Lutherans and many others began to use the Lectionary In those churches that have weekday services the same Scripture texts may be heard along with the same celebration of a saint This volume provides reflections on the proper biblical passages for weekday saints Any member of a Christian congregation marking the celebration of a saint on a weekday will find these reflections on the Scripture texts assigned to a particular saint very helpful
