Animal Question in Deconstruction Lynn Turner, 2013-08-20 Explores the political and poetic understanding of the deconstruction of the animal question How does deconstruction understand relations between humans and other animals This collection of essays reveals that across Jacques Derrida's work as a whole as well as that of Helene Cixous and Nicholas Royle deconstruction has always addressed questions about animality In this collection for example Cixous asks after human intervention between the death of a wild bird and the predation of a domestic cat Kelly Oliver pursues Derrida's analysis of what or whose gaze is at stake when a King oversees the autopsy of an elephant Royle examines in what sense the vulnerable impressions made by the tunnelling of a mole might be thought of as the traces of a text Re-examining how we relate to other animals has far reaching implications for how we think of ourselves Across this collection authors bring to attention the politics and the ethics of a less anthropocentric world Even when this world is grasped

Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle, 1860 Maurice Blanchot and Fragmentary Writing Leslie Hill, 2012-07-05 Writing in fragments is often held to be one of the most distinctive signature effects of Romantic modern and postmodern literature But what is the fragment and what may be said to be its literary philosophical and political significance Few writers have explored these questions with such probing radicality and rigorous tenacity as the French writer and thinker Maurice Blanchot For the first time in any language this book explores in detail Blanchot's own writing in fragments in order to understand the stakes of the fragmentary within philosophical and literary modernity It attends in detail to each of Blanchot's fragmentary works Awaiting Forgetting The Step Not Beyond and The Writing of the Disaster and reconstructs Blanchot's radical critical engagement with the philosophical and literary tradition in particular with Hegel Nietzsche Heidegger Heraclitus Levinas Derrida Nancy Mallarmé Char and others and

Crime and Punishment in Latin America Ricardo D. Salvatore, Carlos Aguirre, Gilbert M. Joseph, 2001-09-20 Essays in collection argue that Latin American legal institutions were both mechanisms of social control and unique arenas for ordinary people to contest government policies and resist exploitation Modest Nonconceptualism Eva Schmidt, 2015-07-06 The author defends nonconceptualism the claim that perceptual experience is nonconceptual and has nonconceptual content Continuing the heated and complex debate surrounding this topic over the past two decades she offers a sustained defense of a novel version of the view Modest Nonconceptualism and provides a systematic overview of some of the central controversies in the debate An explication of the notion of nonconceptual content and a distinction between nonconceptualist views of different strengths starts off the volume then the author goes on to defend participants in the debate over nonconceptual content against the allegation that their failure to distinguish between a state view and a content view of nonconceptualism leads to fatal problems for their views Next she makes a case for nonconceptualism by refining some of the central arguments for the view such as the arguments from fineness of grain from contradictory contents from animal and infant perception and from concept acquisition Then two central objections against nonconceptualism are rebutted in a novel way the epistemological objection and the objection from objectivity Modest Nonconceptualism allows for perceptual experiences to involve some conceptual elements It emphasizes the relevance of concept employment for an understanding of conceptual and nonconceptual mental states and identifies the nonconceptual content of experience with scenario content It insists on the possibility of genuine content bearing perceptual experience without concept possession and is thus in line with the Autonomy Thesis Finally it includes an account of perceptual justification that relies on the external contents of experience and belief yet is compatible with epistemological internalism The Practice of Research in Criminology and Criminal Justice Ronet Bachman, Russell K.
