Stars Of The New Curfew:

Stars of the New Curfew Ben Okri, 1988 Noveller fra 1980ernes Lagos om den rige og fattige indbyggere Stories of women Elleke Boehmer, 2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license Elleke Boehmer's work on the crucial intersections between independence nationalism and gender has already proved canonical in the field Stories of women combines her keynote essays on the mother figure and the postcolonial nation with incisive new work on male autobiography daughter writers the colonial body the trauma of the post colony and the nation in a transnational context Focusing on Africa as well as South Asia and sexuality as well as gender Boehmer offers fine close readings of writers ranging from Achebe Okri and Mandela to Arundhati Roy and Yvonne Vera shaping these into a critical engagement with theorists of the nation like Fredric Jameson and Partha Chatterjee This edition will be of interest to readers and researchers of postcolonial international and women's writing of nation theory colonial history and historiography of Indian African migrant and diasporic literatures and is likely to prove a landmark study in the field Monsters of the Market David McNally, 2011-07-12 Monsters of the Market investigates modern capitalism through the prism of the body panics it arouses Examining Frankenstein Marx's Capital and zombie fables from sub Saharan Africa it offers a novel account of the cultural and corporeal economy of global capitalism Strategic Transformations in Nigerian Writing Ato Quayson, 1997-09-22 a sophisticated and thoughtful study Leeds African Studies Bulletin A very impressive work in the concreteness of its research documentation as well as in its theoretical scope this study brings a truly innovative dimension to African literary scholarship and indeed to the whole field of African studies Abiola Irele Ohio State University The discussion reveals a combination of formidable analytical and critical strength with a refreshingly open minded and sensible approach to his field Karin Barber University of Birmingham The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele, 2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study Energy Humanities Imre Szeman, Dominic Boyer, 2017-04-22 Energy humanities is a field of scholarship that like medical humanities and digital humanities before it overcomes traditional boundaries between the disciplines and between academic and applied research Like its predecessors energy humanities highlights the essential contribution that the insights and methods of the human sciences can make to areas of study and analysis once thought best left to the natural sciences This isn't a case of the humanities simply helping their cross campus colleagues to learn the mechanics of communication so that they might better articulate their ideas Rather these fields of scholarship are ones that demonstrate how the scale and complexity of the issues being explored demand insights and approaches that transcend old school disciplinary boundaries Energy Humanities A Reader offers a carefully curated selection of the best and most influential work in energy humanities that has appeared over the past decade To stay true to the diverse work that makes up this emergent field selections range from anthropology and geography to philosophy history and cultural studies to recent energy focused interventions in art and literature The three readers all agree that this is an important ground breaking collection of work Provided by publisher

The Oxford Handbook of Global Modernisms Mark Wollaeger, Matt Eatough, 2013-10 The Oxford Handbook of Global Modernisms expands the scope of modernism beyond its traditional focus on English and Irish literature to explore the contributions of artists from countries and regions like the US Cuba Spain the Balkans China Japan India Vietnam and Nigeria

At Penpoint Monica Popescu, 2020-08-14 In At Penpoint Monica Popescu traces the development of African literature during the second half of the twentieth century to address the intertwined effects of the Cold War and decolonization on literary history Popescu draws on archival materials from the Soviet sponsored Afro Asian Writers Association and the CIA funded Congress for Cultural Freedom alongside considerations of canonical literary works by Ayi Kwei Armah Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o Ousmane Sembène Pepetela Nadine Gordimer and others She outlines how the tensions between the United States and the Soviet Union played out in the aesthetic and political debates among African writers and intellectuals These writers decolonized aesthetic canons even as superpowers attempted to shape African cultural production in ways that would advance their ideological and geopolitical goals Placing African literature at the crossroads of postcolonial theory and studies of the Cold War Popescu provides a new reassessment of African literature aesthetics and knowledge production

The Black Speculative Arts Movement Reynaldo Anderson, Clinton R. Fluker, 2019-11-13 The Black Speculative Arts Movement Black Futurity Art Design is a 21st century statement on the intersection of the future of African people with art culture technology and politics This collection enters the global debate on the emerging field of Afrofuturism studies with an international array of scholars and artists contributing to the discussion of Black futurity in the 21st century The contributors analyze and respond to the invisibility or mischaracterization of Black people in the popular imagination in science fiction and in philosophies of history

The Art of the Story Daniel Halpern, 2000-11 An anthology of some 80 stories including two dozen translations The latter range from The Elephant Vanishes a look at Japanese society by Haruki Murakami to My Father the Englishman and I a satire on colonialism by the Somalian Nuruddin Farah

Indigeneity, Globalization, and African Literature Tanure Ojaide, 2015-10-07 Literature remains one of the few disciplines that reflect the experiences sensibility worldview and living realities of its people Contemporary African literature captures the African experience in history and politics in a multiplicity of ways Politics itself has come to intersect and impact on most if not all aspects of the African reality This relationship of literature with African people s lives and condition forms the setting of this study Tanure Ojaide s Indigeneity Globalization and African Literature Personally Speaking belongs with a well established tradition of personal reflections on literature by African creative writer critics Ojaide s contribution brings to the table the perspective of what is now recognized as a second generation writer a poet and a concerned citizen of Nigeria s Niger Delta area

The Tough Alchemy of Ben Okri Rosemary Alice Gray,2020-07-23 Winner of the Booker Prize for The Famished Road Ben Okri is widely regarded as one of the most important contemporary writers writing today Featuring a substantial new interview with Ben Okri himself a full bibliography of his creative work and covering his complete works this is the first in depth study of Okri s themes and artistic vision Rosemary Gray explores Okri s career long engagement with myth Nigerian politics and culture and with the environmental crisis in the age of the Anthropocene

The Columbia Guide to West African Literature in English Since 1945 Oyekan Owomoyela,2008-10-21 Composed by a premier scholar of African literature this volume is a comprehensive guide to the literary traditions of Gambia Sierra Leone Liberia Ghana and Nigeria five distinct countries bound by their experience with colonialism Oyekan Owomoyela begins with an overview of the authors texts and historical events that have shaped the development of postwar Anglophone literatures in this region exploring shifts in theme and the role of foreign sponsorship and illuminating recent debates regarding the language identity gender and social commitments of various authors and their works His introduction concludes with a bibliography of key critical texts The second half of the volume is an alphabetical tour of writers publications concepts genres movements and institutions with suggested readings for further research Entries focus primarily on fiction but also touch on drama and poetry Featured authors include Chris Abani Chinua Achebe Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Cyprian Ekwensi Uzodinma Chukuka Iweala Helen Oyeyemi and Wole Soyinka Topics range from the European origins of African literature and the West African diaspora to the development of an African personality the establishment of a regional publishing industry and the global literary marketplace Owomoyela also discusses such influences as the postwar emergence of Onitsha Market Literature the Mbari Club and the importance of the Noma Award Owomoyela s portrait points to the major impact of West African literature on the evolution of both African and world literatures in English Sure to become the definitive text for research in the field The Columbia Guide to West African Literature in English Since 1945 is a vital resource for newcomers as well as for advanced scholars seeking a deeper understanding of the region s rich literary heritage

Fertile Crossings Pietro Deandrea,2021-11-01 In retracing some of the routes followed by West African literature in English over the course of the last three decades this book employs an original multidimensional approach whereby the three main genres narrative poetry and drama are considered in the light of their intricate web of fecund rapport and mutual influence Authors such as Tutuola Armah Aidoo and Awoonor translated the fluid structures of orality into written prose and consequently infused their works with poetic and dramatic resonance thereby challenging the canonical dominance of social realism and paving the way for the birth of West African magical realism in Laing Okri and Cheney Coker Starting in the 1970s poetry on stage has become a mainstream genre in Ghana thanks to performances by Okai Anyidoho and Acquah Boundaries between literary theatre and other genres have undergone a similar dissolution in the affirmation of the concept of total art from Efua Sutherland to ben Abdallah Osofisan and others Fertile Crossings offers a study of these topics from various viewpoints blending in depth textual analysis with reflections on the political import of the works in question within the context of the present state of African societies all supported by interviews with most of the authors The Disposition of Nature

Jennifer Wenzel, 2019-12-03 Finalist 2022 Ecocriticism Book Prize Association for the Study of Literature and the Environment Shortlisted 2020 Book Prize Association for the Study of the Arts of the Present How do literature and other cultural forms shape how we imagine the planet for better or worse In this rich original and long awaited book Jennifer Wenzel tackles the formal innovations rhetorical appeals and sociological imbrications of world literature that might help us confront unevenly distributed environmental crises including global warming The Disposition of Nature argues that assumptions about what nature is are at stake in conflicts over how it is inhabited or used Both environmental discourse and world literature scholarship tend to confuse parts and wholes Working with writing and film from Africa South Asia and beyond Wenzel takes a contrapuntal approach to sites and subjects dispersed across space and time Reading for the planet Wenzel shows means reading from near to there across experiential divides between specific sites at more than one scale Impressive in its disciplinary breadth Wenzel s book fuses insights from political ecology geography anthropology history and law while drawing on active debates between postcolonial theory and world literature as well as scholarship on the Anthropocene and the material turn In doing so the book shows the importance of the literary to environmental thought and practice elaborating how a supple understanding of cultural imagination and narrative logics can foster more robust accounts of global inequality and energize movements for justice and livable futures The Postcolonial Unconscious Neil

Lazarus, 2011-06-30 The Postcolonial Unconscious is a major attempt to reconstruct the whole field of postcolonial studies In this magisterial and at times polemical study Neil Lazarus argues that the key critical concepts that form the very foundation of the field need to be re assessed and questioned Drawing on a vast range of literary sources Lazarus investigates works and authors from Latin America and the Caribbean Africa and the Arab world South Southeast and East Asia to reconsider them from a postcolonial perspective Alongside this he offers bold new readings of some of the most influential figures in the field Fredric Jameson Edward Said and Frantz Fanon A tour de force of postcolonial studies this book will set the agenda for the future probing how the field has come to develop in the directions it has and why and how it can grow further

Representing Scotland in Literature, Popular Culture and Iconography A. Riach, 2004-12-10 This fascinating new study is about cultural change and continuities At the core of the book are discrete literary studies of Scotland and

Shakespeare Walter Scott R L Stevenson Arthur Conan Doyle the modern Scottish Renaissance of the 1920s and more recent cultural and literary phenomena The central theme of literature and popular representation recontextualises literary analysis in a broader multi faceted picture involving all the arts and the changing sense of what the popular might be in a modern nation New technologies alter forms of cultural production and the book charts a way through these forms from oral poetry and song to the novel and includes studies of paintings classical music socialist drama TV film and comic books The international context for mass media cultural production is examined as the story of the intrinsic curiosity of the imagination and the intensely local aspect of Scotland s cultural self representation unfolds Tin House Win McCormack,2014-05-27 In our increasingly mediated society where joy is self conscious and tweeted about as it is happening is it possible for the genuinely ecstatic experience From religious to chemically induced from biochemical analysis to attempts to capture the ineffable our issue on the ecstatic will feature poetry fiction and essays addressing the ecstatic and its counterparts the comedown and ecstasy thwarted whether by internal or external means Tin House is a beautifully designed periodical that features the best writers of our time alongside a new generation of talent poised to become the most important voices of the future Content includes short stories profiles author interviews poetry essays and unique departments such as Lost and Found in which writers review overlooked or underrated books and Blithe Spirits and Readable Feast which present tales and recipes for drinks and food in a literary way On the Postcolony Achille Mbembe,2001 Refreshing a stale debate about power in the postcolonial state this book addresses a topic debated across the humanities and social sciences how to define discuss and address power and the subjective experience of ordinary people in the face of power Anderson's Travel Companion Compiled by Sarah Anderson,2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non fiction presented together this companion is for all those who like travelling like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination It covers guidebooks as well as books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies biographies and fiction and lists books both in and out of print Anderson s Travel Companion is arranged first by continent then alphabetically by country and then by subject cross referenced where necessary There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects She is known by well known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion

Enjoying the Beat of Phrase: An Psychological Symphony within Stars Of The New Curfew

In a global eaten by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of instant conversation, the melodic splendor and psychological symphony developed by the written word usually disappear in to the back ground, eclipsed by the persistent noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. But, set within the pages of Stars Of The New Curfew a charming fictional value full of fresh thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a wonderful musician of language, this fascinating masterpiece conducts readers on a mental trip, skillfully unraveling the concealed tunes and profound affect resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths with this emotional examination, we shall explore the book is main harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing design, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
