Catalogue of Books Printed in the XVth Century now in the British Library (BMC). Part XIII: Hebraica ,2021-10-25 The Catalogue of Books Printed in the XVth Century Now in the British Museum British Library generally referred to as BMC is a monument in the history of the book BMC followed on from the rearrangement of the Museum s incunabula begun by Robert Proctor on the basis of the comprehensive survey of printing types and presses of the fifteenth century that he had published in 1898 as an Index of the incunabula in the Museum and the Bodleian Library The Index represented a working out of the system he had developed for the identification of printers of the incunabula period on the basis of typographical material The volumes of BMC extend Proctor s principles by providing full descriptions of the incunabula in the collections of the British Museum and making revisions where necessary The first part appeared in 1908 prepared by A W Pollard after Proctor s death in 1903 The most recent part was published in 1985 Unprepared:

Lead-up and Beginning of War Between the Empire of Japan and the United States of America Colonel Roy M. Stanley II, USAF (Ret.),2019-09-03 Merriam Press World War 2 History It wasn t that the US was mentally and materially unready for war We weren t ready for the war we got To say the USA was mentally and physically unprepared for World War II is an understatement Details the history of the lead up and beginning of war between the Empire of Japan and the United States This is essentially a photo book with accompanying text What Stanley offers to both the casual reader and the military history buff is his experience as a photo interpreter to draw information from the imagery Because aerial photos are often difficult to research and understand without proper training they are a seldom used contributor to the study of military history Stanley considers photos an original source equal to first hand testimony From the 1800s to Pearl Harbor Stanley thoroughly explains how Japan and America entered into a war they did not want Hundreds of photos and illustrations
