experience can connect you with God's stirring introduction to the experience of faith in The Gospel According to Starbucks. You don't stand in line at Starbucks just to buy a cup of coffee. You stop for the experience surrounding the cup of coffee. Too many of us line up for God out of duty or guilt. We completely miss the warmth and richness of the experience of living with God. If we'd learn to see what God is doing on earth, we could participate fully in the irresistible life that he offers. You can learn to pay attention like never before to identify where God is already in business right in your neighborhood. The doors are open and the coffee is brewing. God is serving the refreshing antidote to the unsatisfying arms-length spiritual life and he won't even make you stand in line.

The Power of Habit Charles Duhigg, 2012-02-28. Groundbreaking new research shows that by grabbing hold of the three-step loop, all habits form in our brains: cue, routine, reward. We can change them, giving us the power to take control over our lives. We are what we repeatedly do, said Aristotle. Excellence, then, is not an act but a habit. On the most basic level, a habit is a simple neurological loop: there is a cue, my mouth feels gross, a routine, hello Crest, and a reward, ahhh, minty fresh. Understanding this loop is the key to exercising regularly or becoming more productive at work or tapping into reserves of creativity. Marketers, too, are learning how to exploit these loops to boost sales. CEOs and coaches are using them to change how employees work and athletes compete. As this book shows, tweaking even one habit as long as it's the right one can have staggering effects. In The Power of Habit, award-winning New York Times business reporter Charles Duhigg takes readers inside labs where brain scans record habits as they flourish and die classrooms in which students learn to boost their willpower and boardrooms where executives dream up products that tug on our deepest habitual urges Full of compelling narratives that will appeal to fans of Michael Lewis Jonah Lehrer and Chip and Dan Heath The Power of Habit contains an exhilarating argument our most basic actions are not the product of well considered decision making but of habits we often do not realize exist By harnessing this new science we can transform our lives Moody's OTC Industrial Manual ,1995 Companies traded over the counter or on regional conferences Moody's Bank and Finance Manual ,2000
