Directory of Secondary Schools with Occupational Curriculum Nicholas A. Osso,1973 Resources in Education ,1997 California Dreaming Suzanne M. Wilson,2008-10-01 This compelling book tells the history of the past two decades of efforts to reform mathematics education in California That history is a contentious one full of such fervor and heat that participants and observers often refer to the math wars Suzanne M Wilson considers the many perspectives of those involved in math reform weaving a tapestry of facts philosophies conversations events and personalities into a vivid narrative While her focus is on California the implications of her book extend to struggles over education policy and practice throughout the United States Wilson s three dimensional account of math education reform efforts reveals how the debates tend to be deeply ideological and how people come to feel misunderstood and misrepresented She examines the myths used to explain the failure of reforms the actual reasons for failure and the importance of taking multiple perspectives into account when planning and implementing reform

Science Assessment in the Service of Reform Gerald Kulm,Shirley M. Malcom,1991 Students in America don t measure up in science and mathematics a problem especially critical in a society which is becoming increasingly technology based This authoritative examination of the problem presents useful material to make assessment a tool for the meaningful reform of school science It also provides some basic guidelines for whatever system of assessment is used Acidic paper Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Pennsylvania School Journal ,1956 Includes Official program of the meeting of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association sometimes separately paged
