Private Education in Emerging Economies Svava Bjarnason, Harry Anthony Patrinos, Jee-Peng Tan, 2008-12-17

Governments around the world and particularly those in developing countries face significant educational challenges Despite progress in raising education enrollments at the basic education level much remains to be done Today about 77 million children in developing countries are not in school particularly in Sub Saharan Africa and South Asia Higher education participation rates remain low in many developing countries and public higher education institutions HEIs struggle to absorb growing numbers of secondary school graduates Public universities face ongoing challenges including a lack of teaching and research resources and the loss of qualified staff to developed countries The inability of public sector educational institutions particularly in developing countries to absorb growing numbers of students at all levels of education has seen the emergence of private schools and HEIs This paper briefly examines the international experience concerning the regulation of private education at the school and higher education level It begins with an overview of the private school and higher education sectors and a short discussion of the potential benefits of increased private participation in education The remainder of the paper focuses on the following questions and sets out propositions for governments to consider Digital Democracy: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications

Management Association, Information Resources, 2012-06-30 This book presents a vital compendium of research detailing the latest case studies architectures frameworks methodologies and research on Digital Democracy Provided by publisher Handbook of Research on E-Government in Emerging Economies: Adoption, E-Participation, and Legal Frameworks Bwalya, Kelvin Joseph, Zulu, Saul F.C., 2012-03-31 This book is a collection of knowledge on contemporary experiences on technological societal and legal setups of e Government implementation in emerging economies Provided by publisher An African Research Ethics Reader , 2024-06-11 Cultural research ethics is in a nascent phase within the field of research ethics as a whole and requires more attention and in depth articulation With specific case studies this vital volume provides unique perspectives on topics such as social autonomy vis a vis interests of individuals This volume assembles needed resources and case studies in cultural research ethics practices providing insight into current developments and future research directions It is a valuable contribution to cultural research ethics given the dearth of published literature available in this emerging field It is designed with two broad audiences in mind 1 African researchers and research organizations that want homegrown guidance about research ethics and 2 research ethicists worldwide who can use it to learn about cultural research ethics especially with respect to Africa Religion, Disability, and Sustainable Development in Africa Chioma Ohajunwa, Kudakwashe 'AK' Dube, Ezra Chitando, 2025-02-14 This book investigates the interplay between disability and religion in Africa and what this means in the context of the Sustainable Development Goals The importance of meeting the needs of people with disabilities is highlighted specifically in several Sustainable Development Goals as well as being emphasised as a cross cutting issue across all the goals Over 1 billion people are estimated to be living with disabilities and 80% of this population live in the Global South many within Africa This book argues that within this context religion must be considered as people with disabilities often turn to religion for solace in confronting the daily struggles and pains that they face Drawing on multiple disciplinary lenses this book reflects on how traditional indigenous Abrahamic and other African minority religions and philosophies interact with disability and how this relates to the Sustainable Development Goals The book demonstrates how religions in Africa conceptualise imagine or re imagine disability in the context of key themes such as gender ecological justice health poverty education employment entrepreneurship and migration Overall the book invites researchers from across the social sciences to consider how African religious theological and philosophical ideas can help towards the inclusion of people with disabilities in the 2030 development agenda in Africa
