English in the Secondary School Andrew Green,2012 A Practical Guide to Teaching English in the Secondary School is an essential companion to the best selling Learning to Teach English in the Secondary School Written by expert professionals it offers straightforward advice inspiration and support for all training and newly qualified English teachers Once Morris Gleitzman,2010-03-30 Felix a Jewish boy in Poland in 1942 is hiding from the Nazis in a Catholic orphanage The only problem is that he doesn't know anything about the war and thinks he's only in the orphanage while his parents travel and try to salvage their bookselling business And when he thinks his parents are in danger Felix sets off to warn them straight into the heart of Nazi occupied Poland To Felix everything is a story Why did he get a whole carrot in his soup It must be sign that his parents are coming to get him Why are the Nazis burning books They must be foreign librarians sent to clean out the orphanage's outdated library But as Felix's journey gets increasingly dangerous he begins to see horrors that not even stories can explain Despite his grim surroundings Felix never loses hope Morris Gleitzman takes a painful subject and expertly turns it into a story filled with love friendship and even humor Good Ideas Michael Rosen,2014-09-11 We live in a world surrounded by all the stuff that education is supposed to be about machines bodies languages cities votes mountains energy movement plays food liquids collisions protests stones windows But the way we've been taught often excludes all sorts of practical ways of finding out about ideas knowledge and culture anything from cooking to fixing loo cisterns from dance to model making from collecting leaves to playing Who am I The great thing is that you really can use everything around you to learn more Learning should be much more fun and former children's laureate million selling author broadcaster father of five and all round national treasure Michael Rosen wants to show you how Forget lists passing tests and ticking boxes the world outside the classroom can't be contained within the limits of any kind of curriculum and it's all the better for it Long car journeys poems about farting cake baking even shouting at the TV can teach lessons that will last a lifetime Packed with enough practical tips stories and games to inspire a legion of anxious parents and bored children Good Ideas shows that the best kind of education really does start at home Values in Sex Education Mark Halstead,Michael Reiss,2003-09-02 Sex education is rarely out of the news Despite this there exist surprisingly few studies of the principles policies and practice of sex education This book provides such an examination focusing on the values to which children are exposed in sex education

Sex education inevitably involves the transmission of values regardless of whether this is intended by teachers Throughout the book academic and professional literature on both values and sex education is reviewed and discussed The authors look at the implicit liberal values which underpin programmes of sex education and at the challenges presented by the diversity of values in contemporary society The book also considers Why values are central to sex education Children s voices and children s values Religious and family values Achievable aims for school sex education How to help young people to reflect critically on the influences to which they are exposed and on their own developing sexual values How to build values into practical approaches to sex education at both primary and secondary levels This timely book will help all those involved in sex education to steer a path between controversial and often opposing views and will be essential reading for students on PGCE and BEd courses It will also be a valuable resource for teachers and professionals involved in teaching sex education such as teachers of personal and social education form tutors heads of year school nurses health workers and academics
