Gene Ventriglia was a very poor fourteen year old immigrant when he arrived in New York harbor in early July 1958. Coming from the tiny village of Alife Italy he had grown up in a farm village of about three hundred inhabitants. The village as well as his parents house had been leveled by bombs in the final days of World War II. In 1958 the memories were still very much alive as postwar reconstruction was far from completion. These were the surroundings where Gene Ventriglia grew up. Gene had only known his small village and was unaware that common items such as telephones and TV sets even existed. One can only imagine his reaction upon seeing the New York skyscrapers and the size and number of cars when he first walked on the New York streets. He had no idea how his life would change in the very near future. How would he react? He wondered if he would make friends. After all how would he communicate? He did not know a word of English. Gene soon realized that getting a good education was the key to success. However he also realized that it would take great efforts and motivation on his part. Was he willing to put in the necessary effort? He needed to learn a new language in a community where he only heard Italian. His search to find that American Dream lasted more than sixty years. During this time Gene was faced with one challenge after another in his search for that dream. In each case Gene used his passion for the game of soccer to fuel his inner motivation and determination not to give up every time he arrived at a dead end. Gene's path to finding that dream was full of surprises. In all cases he was very determined and he demonstrated outstanding motivation to achieve his goal.

Conduct it like a job search wherein the student athlete is marketed to college coaches. You must target the right schools and then market yourself in the right way. Once a coach becomes interested many other issues must be settled: NCAA Clearinghouse recruiting rules, scholarship issues etc. This book helps high school athletes understand the recruiting rules and increase their chances of getting into the college of their dreams. The People's Team Mark Beech, 2019 The Packers the only fan owned team in any of North America's major pro sports leagues and Green Bay population 104,057 is the smallest city with a big time franchise. They're unlikely candidates to be pro football's preeminent team yet nobody in the NFL has won more championships. In honor of the team's 100th anniversary Beech paints compelling pictures of a franchise, a town and a fan base from the days of the French fur traders who settled on the shores of La Baie in the seventeenth century to the team's pursuit of its fourteenth NFL championship. adapted from jacket Competing for Kids Kelly E.
