Team Mom Snack Schedule Letter:

The Way Home Henry Dunow, 2002-01-22 When Henry Dunow signs up to coach his son Max's Little League team on Manhattan's Upper West Side he finds himself looking back on his own childhood and his father Moishe a Yiddish writer and refugee from Hitler's Europe who had considered recreation like playing catch with his son narishkeit foolishness Determined to be a different kind of parent to his first grader Dunow bumbles through a self test of fatherhood on the scruffy fields of New York's Riverside Park playing coach cheerleader father and friend to a ragtag bunch of seven year olds many of whom are discovering baseball for the first time The Way Home is the affecting and ironic story of Dunow's journey of discovery as he watches his relationship with Max evolve over the course of a Little League season and comes to understand what being a father to his son can teach him about the man who was his own father It's All for the Kids Michael Messner, 2009-03-18 Today in a world quite different from the one that existed just thirty years ago both girls and boys play soccer baseball softball and other youth sports Yet has the dramatic surge in participation by girls contributed to greater gender equality In this engaging study leading sociologist Michael A Messner probes the richly complex gender dynamics of youth sports Weaving together vivid first person interviews with his own experiences as a volunteer for his sons teams Messner finds that despite the movement of girls into sports gender boundaries and hierarchies still dominate especially among the adults who run youth sports His book widens into a provocative exploration of why youth sports matter how they play a profound role in shaping gender class family and community Creating the Moms Group You've Been Looking for Jill Savage, 2004 How's Your Motherhood Network People in all professions know the importance of networking How about you Are you enjoying the support and connection you need in the most demanding career of all motherhood You can Whether you're improving the group you're already in or starting one from scratch developing a mothers group is practical doable and indescribably rewarding Here are the guidance and resources you need you need for a can do attitude Drawing from years of experience Jill Savage offers a resource manual packed with vision and a wealth of ideas You'll find sage road tested upbeat advice on Different kinds of groups Mentoring and accountability relationships Attracting members raining leaders and volunteers Handling conflicts Policy and procedure Arranging for childcare Gaining church support Bible study and prayer and much more Motherhood is an incredibly important and rewarding profession You don't have to do it alone The supportive and trusting relationships you long for are within your reach and some will last a lifetime Chockful of resources Creating the Moms Group You've Been Looking For will help you and other moms like you find friends grow in your faith and keep your sanity in the process of raising your children The Kaleidoscope of Gender Joan Z. Spade, Catherine G. Valentine, 2011 An accessible timely and stimulating introduction to the sociology of gender The Kaleidoscope of Gender Prisms Patterns and Possibilities Third Edition provides a comprehensive analysis of key ideas theories and applications in this field as viewed through the metaphor of a kaleidoscope This collection of creative articles by top scholars explains how the complex evolving pattern of gender is constructed interpersonally institutionally and culturally and challenges students to question how gender shapes their daily lives Like the prior edition the Third Edition maintains a focus on contemporary contributions to the field while incorporating classical and theoretical arguments to provide a broad framework Integrating a cross cultural focus and intersectional inquiry this unique text reader vividly illustrates that gender is a malleable continuum of prisms patterns and possibilities Gender Through the Prism of Difference Maxine Baca Zinn, Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo, Michael A.

Messner, 2016 Gender Through the Prism of Difference adopts a global transnational perspective on how race class and sexual diversity are central to the study of sex and gender In contrast with other books in this area which tend to focus on U S or European viewpoints this wide ranging anthology features many articles based on research done elsewhere throughout the world Now in its fifth edition the book opens with a revised and updated Introduction that sets the stage for understanding gender as a socially constructed experience Featuring twenty eight new readings this edition covers compelling subjects like transgendered people intersex issues men and masculinity sexual and gender violence disabilities obesity reproductive technologies educational testing aging and ageism and Occupy Wall Street Eat Like a Champion
