The Global Academic Rankings Game Maria Yudkevich, Philip G. Altbach, Laura E. Rumbley, 2016-03-02 The Global Academic Rankings Game provides a much needed perspective on how countries and universities react to academic rankings Based on a unified case methodology of eleven key countries and academic institutions this comprehensive volume provides expert analysis on this emerging phenomenon at a time when world rankings are becoming increasingly visible and influential on the international stage Each chapter provides an overview of government and national policies as well as an in depth examination of the impact that rankings have played on policy practice and academic life in Australia Chile China Germany Malaysia the Netherlands Poland Russia Turkey the United Kingdom and the United States The Global Academic Rankings Game contributes to the continuing debate about the influence of rankings in higher education and is an invaluable resource for higher education scholars and administrators as they tackle rankings in their own national and institutional contexts

The Impact of Higher Education Ranking Systems on Universities Kevin Downing, Petrus Johannes Loock, Sarah Gravett, 2021-04-04 This book written by three generations of rankings academics with considerable experience from three very different regions of the globe lifts the lid on the real impact of higher education ranking systems HERS on universities and their stakeholders It critically analyses the criteria that make up the Big Three global ranking systems and using interviews with senior administrators academics and managers discusses their impact on universities from four very different continents Higher education continues to be dominated by a reputational hierarchy of institutions that sustains and is reinforced by HERS Despite all the opinions and arguments about the legitimacy of the rankings as a construct it seems experts agree that they are here to stay The question therefore seems to be less about whether or not universities should be compared and ranked but the manner in which this is undertaken Delivering a fresh perspective on global rankings this book summarizes the development of HERS and provides a critical evaluation of the effects of HERS on four different major regions South Africa the Arab region South East Asia and Australia It will appeal to any academic student university administrator or governing body interested in or affected by global higher education ranking systems

Language and the Knowledge Economy Josep Soler, Kathrin Kaufhold, 2025-02-28 This volume offers a holistic understanding of the interconnections of language specifically English scholarly publishing and knowledge production and circulation through a sociolinguistic lens in contemporary academia across different European settings for research purposes The volume is organised around three parts the first part explores individual factors underpinning knowledge production and their role in shaping scholars academic careers the second part critically reflects on the challenges and opportunities for multilingual scholars in the academic landscape examining the inherent tensions in the interactions between English and other languages the final part considers the ways in which academic knowledge is institutionalised at universities private companies and on a national scale and the subsequent impact on knowledge dissemination Taken together the chapters provide a coherent and holistic overview of the affordances and limitations that different social actors experience when participating in such cycles including the different modes of access to resources across geographic contexts and disciplinary traditions An important contribution of the volume is the multilayered angle that it incorporates into analysing issues of scholarly publishing in today s academia placing language as a social practice at the heart of the structuring processes that condition the creation dissemination and consumption of knowledge in contemporary societies This book will be of interest to scholars in English for research and publication purposes sociolinguistics language and education and applied linguistics Equality and Differentiation in Marketised Higher Education Marion Bowl, Colin McCaig, Jonathan Hughes, 2018-05-24 This edited collection demonstrates how discourses and practices associated with marketisation differentiation and equality are manifested in UK higher education today Uniting leading scholars in higher education and equality in England the contributors and editors expose the contradictions arising from the tension between aims for increased equality and an increasingly marketised higher education As the authors seek to reveal both the intended and unintended consequences of the intensified marketisation of the sector they critically examine the implications of these changes In doing so they reveal the ways in which institutional policy and discourse are involved in masking the contradictions between an educational marketplace and education as a vehicle for advancing equality and social justice This pioneering volume will be of interest and value to students and scholars of higher education in England education policy and the marketisation of higher education as well as policy makers and practitioners E-tivities Gilly Salmon, 2013-06-19 The world of learning and teaching is at a watershed confronted by challenges to previous educational models One learning future lies in impactful purposeful active online activities or e-tivities that keep learners engaged motivated and participating Grounded in the author's action research E-tivities 2nd Edition assuredly illustrates how technologies shape and enhance learning and teaching journeys In this highly practical book Gilly Salmon maintains her exceptional reputation delivering another powerful guide for academics teaching professionals trainers designers and developers in all disciplines This popular text has been comprehensively updated addressing key technological changes since 2002 offering fresh case studies and Carpe Diem a unique approach to learning design workshops Readers will find E-tivities 2nd Edition a wonderful resource on its own or as a companion to the author's bestselling e-Moderating 3rd Edition Find e-tivities on the web at e-tivities.com or connect at gillysalmon.com

Quality in Higher Education David Andrew Turner, 2012-01-01 The quality of higher education is a hot topic especially as students around the world are asked to pay more towards their own education and expect to get what they pay for In addition league tables both national and international have come to dominate discussion with several governments and many institutions setting themselves the goal of improving their ratings In this volume Professor Turner examines the assumptions that are being made about what counts as quality and what the traditional purposes of universities are But with the growth of mass higher education and the rise of student centred approaches to learning and teaching it has become increasingly clear that high quality education is education that meets the needs of the student at that particular moment and promotes their future development After examining a range of different approaches to the quality of higher education and its measurement Professor Turner develops an approach to benchmarking and quality enhancement that is better suited to the ethos of individualised learning and uses it to critique the philosophies that have dominated debates about quality to date This book will be of interest to scholars of higher education but also has something important to add to debates that engage policy makers in higher education It provides a background to the historical development of universities which might help postgraduate students and new members of faculty understand the process in which they are engaged Handbook of Sustainability Science and Research Walter Leal Filho, 2017-10-03 This multidisciplinary handbook explores concrete case studies which illustrate how sustainability science and research can contribute to the realization of the goals of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development It contains contributions from sustainability researchers from across the world
