Sometimes the present is haunted by the memories of childhood. These “ghosts” from the past can have everlasting effects on the ways in which a person lives their life and interacts with others. Amir Khan, the narrator of The Kite Runner, is plagued by a choice he made decades earlier. He spends a lifetime attempting to alleviate his own personal suffering and find a way to “become good again” as he remembers a kite fighting tournament from his childhood that accidentally determined his fate. In The Kite Runner, Khaled Hosseini uses imagery and symbolism to show that the title reflects how a loss of innocence during childhood can lead to lifelong scars of regret.
