MY AUTOBIOGRAPHY

I am Alea Mae D. Benitez, I was born on May 7, 2000 in Pasay City, Philippines. We are two siblings in the family, I am the second child. My mother's name is Divina D. Benitez from Sorsogon, Bicol. My father's name is Nelson D. Benitez. And he is from Camarines Sur, Bicol.

During weekends, we usually spend our days in the family. We always go to church. We helped each other in our activities. My family was a happy and loving family. I had a happy childhood living with my parents and my siblings. I completed my elementary education at Don Carlos Velez Elementary School. During my junior high school, I completed my junior high school at President Corazon Aquino National High School and I usually spend my time with my friends. Since the lockdown, I have a daily routine with my friend for a Google meet until dawn, and we do various things when we do, such as talk about what is going on in our lives and watch movies that have been shown several times. We have been watched pitch perfect all seasons. I finished it several times. When I am not with them, I watch shows like Mr. Queen and Ghost Doctor. And I am a senior at Pasay City South High School, I work hard at everything I can to get into a good university where I can attend college.

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

Autobiographical Inscriptions Barbara Ruth Rodriguez, 1999 As life writing began to attract critical attention in the 1950s and 60s theorists critics and practitioners of autobiography concerned themselves with inscribing that is establishing or asserting a set of conventions that would define constructions of identity and acts of self representation More recently however scholars have identified the ways in which autobiographical works recognize and resist those conventions Moving beyond the narrow prescriptive definition of autobiography as the factual chronological first person narrative of the life story critics have theorized the genre from postmodern and feminist perspectives Autobiographical Inscriptions contributes a theory of autobiography by women writers of color to this lively repositioning of identity studies Barbara Rodriguez breaks new ground in the field with a discussion of the ways in which innovations of form and structure bolster the arguments for personhood articulated by Harriet Jacobs Zora Neale Hurston Hisaye Yamamoto Maxine Hong Kingston Leslie Marmon Silko Adrienne Kennedy and Cecile Pineda Rodriguez maps the intersections of form and structure with issues of race and gender in these women s works Central to the autobiographical act and to the representation of the self in language these intersections mark the ways in which the American woman writer of color comments on the process of subject construction as she produces original forms for the life story In each chapter Rodriguez pairs canonized texts with less well known works reading autobiographical works across cultural contexts and historical periods and even across artistic media By raising crucial questions about structure Autobiographical Inscriptions analyzes the ways in which these texts also destabilize notions of race and gender The result is a remarkable analysis of the seemingly endless range of formal strategies available to adopted and adapted by the American woman writer of color

Autobiographical Writing and British Literature 1783-1834 James Treadwell, 2005-01-20 The word autobiography is a late eighteenth century coinage yet by 1826 it was used as the title for a multi volume anthology of self writing and in 1834 Thomas Carlyle wrote of these Autobiographical times of ours Over the course of those few decades readers and writers came to recognize and name a new genre This book is the first full study of the phenomenon examining both the conditions and the practice of autobiographical writing in Romantic literature Historians of autobiography have often pointed to the turn of the nineteenth century as a pivotal moment In Rousseau and De Quincey's Confessions Wordsworth's Prelude and other canonical documents it has been argued self writing begins to serve the purpose of expressing the individuality autonomy and interiority of the self A more wide ranging view of the actual state of autobiography at the time exposes this narrative as a misrepresentation Self writing does gain a new kind of prominence around 1800 not however because it articulates Romantic ideologies of selfhood but because it becomes a focus of scrutiny and of contention The decades of the Romantic period identified themselves as Autobiographical times but did so anxiously This book asks what forms did that recognition and that anxiety take within the literary culture of the period What did autobiography mean to Romantic readers and writers How do autobiographical texts of the period reflect express and negotiate these conditions As well as reading a wide variety of those documents with single chapters devoted to works by Coleridge Byron and Lamb Treadwell examines writing on and around autobiography essays reviews and other forms of commentary By preserving a continuous relation between the texts and their contexts this book offers the first proper study of what is actually meant by Romantic autobiography

Auto/Biography across the Americas Ricia A. Chansky, 2016-08-05 Auto biographical narratives of the Americas are marked by the underlying themes of movement and belonging This collection proposes that the impact of the historic or contemporary movement of peoples to in and from the Americas whether chosen or forced motivates the ways in which identities are constructed in this contested space Such movement results in a cyclical quest to belong and to understand belonging that reverberates through narratives of the Americas The volume brings together essays written from diverse national cultural linguistic and disciplinary perspectives to trace these transnational motifs in life writing across the Americas Drawing on international scholars from the seemingly disparate regions of the Americas North America the Caribbean and Latin America this book extends critical theories of life writing beyond limiting national boundaries The scholarship included approaches narrative inquiry from the fields of literature linguistics history art history sociology anthropology political science pedagogy gender studies critical race studies and indigenous studies As a whole this volume advances discourse in auto biography studies life writing and identity studies by locating transnational themes in narratives of the Americas and placing them in international and interdisciplinary conversations

Encounters and Dialogues with Martin Heidegger, 1929-1976

Heinrich Wiegand Petzet, 1993-06 Despite his predominance in twentieth century philosophy no intellectual biography of Martin Heidegger has yet appeared This account of Heidegger's personal relations originally published in German and extensively corrected by the author for this translation enlarges our understanding of a complex figure A well known art historian and an intimate friend of Heidegger's Heinrich Wiegand Petzet provides a rich portrait of Heidegger that is part memoir part biography and part cultural history By recounting chronologically a series of encounters between the two friends from their meeting in 1929 until the philosopher's death in 1976 as well as between Heidegger and other contemporaries Petzet reveals not only new aspects of Heidegger's thought and attitudes toward the historical and intellectual events of his time but also the greater cultural and social context in which he articulated his thought The Oxford Handbook of Ancient Biography Koen De Temmerman, 2020-12-10 Biography is one of the most widespread literary genres worldwide Biographies and autobiographies of actors politicians Nobel Prize winners and other famous figures have never been more prominent in book shops and publishers catalogues This Handbook offers a wide ranging multi authored survey on biography in Antiquity from its earliest representatives to Late Antiquity It aims to be a broad introduction and a reference tool on the one hand and to move significantly beyond the state of the art on the other To this end it addresses conceptual questions about this sprawling genre offers both in depth readings of key texts and diachronic studies and deals with the reception of ancient biography across multiple eras up to the present day In addition it takes a wide approach to the concept of ancient biography by examining biographical depictions in different textual and visual media epigraphy sculpture architecture and by providing outlines of biographical developments in ancient and late antique cultures other than Graeco Roman Highly accessible this book aims at a broad audience ranging from specialists to newcomers in the field Chapters provide English translations of ancient and modern terminology and citations In addition all individual chapters are concluded by a section containing suggestions for further reading on their specific topic The Art of Biography in Antiquity Tomas Hägg, 2012-04-05 Greek and Roman biography embraces much more than Plutarch Suetonius and their lost Hellenistic antecedents In this book Professor Hägg explores the whole range and diversity of ancient biography from its Socratic beginnings to the Christian acquisition of the form in late antiquity He shows how creative writers developed the lives of popular heroes like Homer Aesop and Alexander and how the Christian gospels grew from bare sayings to full lives In imperial Rome biography flourished in the works of Greek writers Lucian's satire Philostratus full sophistic orchestration Porphyry's intellectual portrait of Plotinus Perhaps surprisingly it is not political biography or the lives of poets that provide the main artery of ancient biography but various kinds of philosophical spiritual and ethical lives Applying a consistent biographical reading to a representative set of surviving texts this book opens up the manifold but often neglected art of biography in classical antiquity Selected Essays of Wilson Harris A.J.M. Bundy, 2005-08-04 First published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Beyond the Borders Deborah L. Madsen, 2003-08-20 This book challenges the boundaries of postcolonial theory Focusing on American literature it examines how America's own imperial history has shaped the literature that has emerged from America from Native American Latino Black and Asian American writers They contrast this with postcolonial literature from countries whose history has been shaped by American colonialism from Canada Central America and the Caribbean to Hawaii Indonesia and Vietnam It explores questions about national identity and multiculturalism why for instance is a Native writer categorised within American literature if writing on one side of the border but as Canadian and postcolonial if writing on the other This is a challenging collection that raises questions not only about the boundaries of postcolonial theory but also about ethnicity and multiculturalism and the impact of immigration and assimilation

Books on Military Architecture Printed in Venice Paul Breman, 2021-10-25 In the great days of Italian fortification literature the century from Valle's first Venetian edition in 1524 to the appearance of Tensini in 1624 Venice accounted for roughly as many titles as the rest of Europe together Books on fortification were a natural for the enterprising printer publishers of this city state free from the constraints of small minded princes and their paranoid insistence on state secrets This annotated catalogue describes 350 books published until the time when Venice ceased to be an independent state It provides massive documentation taking into account the many ghosts created by misprints or over zealous bibliographers and gives full collations extensive annotations and locations of copies of all entries An index of printers and a bibliographie raisonnée of the sources used appear at the end The thirty five illustrations are chosen for their relevance to the subject and range from early bastion traces to emblematic portraits

Gideon Smales, 1867 Literary Impostors Rosmarin Heidenreich, 2018-07-30 In the first half of the twentieth century a number of Canadian authors were revealed to have faked the identities that made them famous What is extraordinary about these writers is that they actually became in everyday life characters they had themselves invented Many of their works were simultaneously fictional and autobiographical reflecting the duality of their identities In Literary Impostors Rosmarin Heidenreich tells the intriguing stories both the true and the fabricated versions of six Canadian authors who obliterated their pasts and re-invented themselves Grey Owl was in fact an Englishman named Archie Belaney Will James the cowboy writer from the American West was the Quebec born francophone Ernest Dufault the prairie novelist Frederick Philip Grove turned out to be the German writer and translator Felix Paul Greve Chief Buffalo Child Long Lance Onoto Watanna and Sui Sin Far were the chosen identities of three mixed race writers whose given names were respectively Sylvester Long Winnifred Eaton and Edith Eaton Heidenreich argues that their imposture in some cases not discovered until long after their deaths was not fraudulent in the usual sense these writers forged new identities to become who they felt they really were In an age of proliferating cyber identities and controversial claims to ancestry Literary Impostors raises timely questions involving race migrancy and gender to illustrate the porousness of the line that is often drawn between an author's biography and the fiction he or she produces D. H. Lawrence: Late Essays and Articles D. H. Lawrence, 2004-04 In his last years D H Lawrence often wrote for newspapers he needed the money and clearly enjoyed the work He also wrote several substantial essays during the same period This meticulously edited collection brings together major essays such as Pornography and Obscenity and Lawrence s spirited Introduction to the volume of his Paintings a group of autobiographical pieces two of which are published here for the first time and the articles Lawrence wrote at the invitation of newspaper and magazine editors There are thirty nine items in total thirty five of them deriving from original manuscripts all were written between 1926 and Lawrence s death in March 1930 They are ordered chronologically according to the date of composition each is preceded by an account of the circumstances in which it came to be published The volume is introduced by a substantial survey of Lawrence s career as a writer responding directly to public interests and concerns
