IDENTIFYING CRYSTALS THAT RESONATE WITH YOU

As you work with crystals, you'll discover that you resonate with some crystals more than others. You can feel more connected to a crystal because of its color, mineral content, or its vibrational frequency. Working with stones that you resonate with will offer a deeper level of healing, and it is more likely that you'll feel their energy.

You may not be able to hop over to a local crystal shop and hold twenty different varieties of stones. If the opportunity arises, I certainly encourage you to take it, but there are several other ways to find crystals that resonate with you. I believe the best way to find crystals you resonate with is to experience a variety of crystals. I realize this may not always be possible, so I'm sharing a few different options for identifying crystals that resonate with you. I will also share some tools for narrowing down what crystals may be a good match for you.

If you're able to go somewhere that sells a variety of crystals, like a crystal shop or mineral show, be sure to allow yourself the time to be present in the space. If there aren't any crystal shops or mineral shows near you, I recommend a couple of alternatives. One easy way to experience a variety of crystals is to purchase a sample set of tumbled crystals. Working with a set of tumbled crystals is a great way to experiment with a variety of crystals, it also allows you to experience the crystals in the comforts of your own home. If neither of these options works for you, I suggest
