To Africa With A Dream:

To Africa With A Dream Olga Marlin, 2004-01-01 Dreams of Africa in Alabama Sylviane A. Diouf, 2009-02-18 In the summer of 1860 more than fifty years after the United States legally abolished the international slave trade 110 men women and children from Benin and Nigeria were brought ashore in Alabama under cover of night They were the last recorded group of Africans deported to the United States as slaves Timothy Meaher an established Mobile businessman sent the slave ship the Clotilda to Africa on a bet that he could bring a shipful of niggers right into Mobile Bay under the officers noses He won the bet This book reconstructs the lives of the people in West Africa recounts their capture and passage in the slave pen in Ouidah and describes their experience of slavery alongside American born enslaved men and women After emancipation the group reunited from various plantations bought land and founded their own settlement known as African Town They ruled it according to customary African laws spoke their own regional language and when giving interviews insisted that writers use their African names so that their families would know that they were still alive The last survivor of the Clotilda died in 1935 but African Town is still home to a community of Clotilda descendants The publication of Dreams of Africa in Alabama marks the 200th anniversary of the abolition of the transatlantic slave trade Winner of the Wesley Logan Prize of the American Historical Association 2007 The Africa I Dream To See Hammed Kayode Alabi, 2019-12-02 This book was written to inspire people to take action and pursue their African dream It detailed my journey into leadership and how I found my African dream I lived and grew up in the slum I never thought I could dream but found my African dream in the worst of the worse places in the world My story inspired me to take action and how we can also do something to enhance the development of the African continent We should not be a bystander and watch things happen we need to do something to secure our planet and protect future generations The book explores the needs of why we have to put people first in designing development programs and outcomes It also represents how the future would look like and how we can be prepared for it as Africans My 15 Year Journey in Africa Sister Mary Angelita Molina Osf, 2010-06 In this book Sister Angelita tells her story of those 15 years in Nigeria Sister Angelita did all this missionary activity while constantly begging for prayers and financial support to carry on her work Her love of God shines through in everything that Sister Angelita accomplished During her worst tribulations and there were many her constant prayer was God is Good Indeed each of the stories Angelita relates in her little book radiates her dependence on Divine Providence The chapters show how God worked through her to ease the afflictions of body soul and spirit of the people she loved so much Because of her their lives became a little more bearable This little dynamo of a person never takes no for an answer When the going gets tough she works all the harder to accomplish her objectives I know of no one with a more determined spirit Sister Angelita and I have known each other for 45 years and this is my testimony to a woman of God who radiates the words of Jesus Live in Me as I do in you those who live in Me and I in them will bear much fruit John 14 4 5 Sarah E Wellinger Longtime Friend She Who Dreams Wanda

Burch,2010-11-17 Wanda Burch dreamt that she would die at a certain age her dreams foretold her diagnosis of cancer and they guided her toward treatment and wellness Although she took advantage of all the medical resources available to her Wanda believes she is alive today because of her intimate engagement with the dreamworld This book is more than one woman s story however Wanda provides techniques such as questioning the dream and observing the surroundings of the dream to delve into the meaning behind the personal stories we tell ourselves in sleep Through powerful prose and practical exercises this book demonstrates that wisdom lives within each of us and we can tap into that wisdom through dreamwork

Rewriting the Return to Africa Anne M. François,2011-08-16 Rewriting The Return to Africa Voices of Francophone Caribbean Women Writers examines the ways Guadeloupean women writers Maryse Condé Simone Schwarz Bart and Myriam Warner Viera demystify the theme of the return to Africa as opposed to the masculinist version by Négritude male writers from the 1930s to 1960s Négritude a cultural and literary movement drew much of its strength from the idea of a mythical or cultural reconnection with the African past allegorized as a mother figure In contrast these women writers of the post colonial era who are to large extent heirs of Négritude differ sharply from their male counterparts in their representation of Africa In their novels the continent is not represented as a propitious mother figure but a disappointing father figure This study argues that these women writers subversion of the metaphorical figure of Africa and its transformation is tied to their gender The women novelists are indeed critical of a female allegorization of the land that is reminiscent of a colonial or nationalist project and a simplistic representation of motherhood that does not reflect the complexities of the Diaspora s relation to origins and identity Unlike the primary male writers of the Négritude movement they carefully gendered the notion of return by choosing female protagonists who made their way back to the Motherland in search of identity I argue that writing is a more suitable space for the female subject seeking identity because it allows her to have a voice and become subject rather than object as that was the case with the Négritude writers The women writers shattering of the image of Mother Africa and subsequently that of Father Africa highlights the complex relationship between Africa and the Diaspora from a female point of view It shifts the identity quest of the characters towards the Caribbean which emerges as the real problematic mother a multi faceted fragmented figure that reflects the constitutive clash that occurred in the archipelago between Europe Africa and the Americas where the issues of race gender class culture ethnicity history and language are very complex

Married to Africa G. Pascal Zachary,2009-04-21 G Pascal Zachary is a foreign correspondent for The Wall Street Journal when he finds love in of all places the zoo in Accra Ghana That is where he meets Chizo Okon the surrogate mother for an orphaned chimpanzee In Married to Africa Zachary tells their warm and humorous story which is as much about the marriage of two cultures as it is about the marriage of two people Chizo introduces Zachary to an Africa usually overlooked by visitors He learns about the spiritual fervor of ordinary Africans the mysterious power of juju and the rewards of eating bushmeat and other African dishes He learns how to haggle effectively pick a reliable taxi driver live on Africa time and adapt to being a white minority in a black society Chizo meanwhile deftly adapts to living with her obruni the local nickname for a white person As their romance deepens the couple learns how differently things can appear to them While Zachary indulges a passion for traditional African art Chizo worries about the possible evil spirits harbored in his wooden statues When the two move to San Francisco Chizo must learn to navigate a new world The result is a different kind of immigrant story powered by a series of wacky wonderful and unforgettable tales such as Chizo taking a machete to Zachary's ex wife's garden not out of malice of course driving enthusiastically without a license charming her hard boiled Jewish mother in law and managing requests from poor relatives in Africa The arrival of Chizo's teenage daughter marks the end of the beginning and the start of a new saga in this uniquely American love story Married to Africa is a tender and charming account of a marriage and a fascinating look at how two people come to know each other across culture and race Back to Africa Teah Wulah,2009 To Africa & Beyond Joseph Meyers,2014-03-31 To Africa and Beyond Walking Through The Storms of Life With a Thankful Heart is a book about pilgrimage physical psychological and spiritual It is about travel adventure and personal fulfillment It is about helping people on three continents through their challenges of discouragement and confusion while experiencing violent mental and emotional storms in my own life More importantly it is a book about choices and consequences and lessons learned throughout a life of high adventure coupled with gut wrenching grief which could easily have pushed me into mistrust of God people or cynicism skepticism or fear or self pity It is a book about how God's Love Grace and active Sovereignty in my life was able to pull me through the knot hole of suffering that at times threatened to engulf my soul will emotions intellect and rather to help me stand on my feet through Faith in God I was enabled to hold on to the concept that God is a good God and the Devil is a bad devil in this broken world as well as the internal choice not to quit because quitting would be worse than continuing This I know the most important most faith filled prayer anyone can pray is Lord not my will but yours be done in my life I know this too that God will usually not act sovereignly in our lives unless we have invited Him to do so All of this was done while living in North America and West Africa as well as extensive travel and ministry in Thailand India Cambodia and Vietnam My hope is that what you read in this book will help you in your own pilgrimage through life on earth The Diaspora's Role in Africa Stella-Monica N. in Africa How does the Western media's portrayal of Africa as the Dark Continent in the 21st century influence their decision making process to invest back home How could African nations governments manage their relationships with citizens abroad to motivate them to invest in their home countries How do some citizen residents in Africa and African Diaspora communities perceive each other in the context of Africa's development How could the African Diaspora collaborate with citizen residents across growth sectors to impact Africa's development The book hopes to inspire agents of change within the diaspora and features diverse African entrepreneurs success stories and their experiences of tackling these challenges The book will be of interest to aspiring entrepreneurs researchers across African studies and the expanding and vibrant field of diaspora research Global Theatre Anthologies: Ancient, Indigenous and Modern Plays from Africa and the Diaspora H.W.

on European neo Latin literature from Petrarch to 1600 another area where developments are moving rapidly the volume concludes with early modern vernacular literatures Italian French Portuguese and English Most papers concern verse but prose is not ignored The introduction to the volume discusses the relevant methodological issues An Afterword outlines the critical history of window reference and includes a short essay by Professor Richard Thomas of Harvard University who coined the term in the 1980s

Dreaming, Religion and Society in Africa M.C. Jedrej, Rosalind Shaw, 2023-11-20 The contributors to this investigation of dreaming in a diversity of African cultures and settings have each approached the matter with a respect for an indigenous discourse which does not necessarily subscribe to Western evaluations of the objective and subjective The matter of dreaming is not so much a psychological constant as ultimately sociological and historical Dream discourse as a strategy deploys contingencies in the elaboration of social relationships and the defence restoration and promotion of identities Dreaming is therefore prominent in such critical settings as sickness and healing artistic inspiration and craftwork election to religious office conversion to Islam or Christianity

How Berlin Conference Clung on Africa Nkwazi N. Mhango, 2024-10-02 The book How Berlin Conference Clung on Africa What Africans Must Do aims to expose the root causes of Africa's struggles including colonialism greed and artificial national divisions It examines the lasting impact of the Berlin Conference of 1884-85 where European powers divided Africa leading to dependence and underdevelopment The book also criticises the role of African leaders in perpetuating these divisions and hindering progress It argues that the artificial borders created at the Berlin Conference have been detrimental to Africa and calls for unity and a rejection of the colonial legacy to achieve true independence and prosperity

Africa Reunite or Perish Mhango, Nkwazi Nkuzi, 2015-12-01 Africa Reunite or Perish is a daring and timely book that explores the essence and nefariousness of neocolonialism in a purportedly independent Africa The book shows how Africa spends billions of dollars in pseudo threats among African countries due to colonially entrenched fear and war mongering The book is emphatic on deconstruction and decolonisation as a categorical imperative for the reunification of Africa beyond the narrow confines of current nation states Mhango takes a diagnostic cum prognostic approach in discussing Africa's predicaments and in identifying and proposing solutions to problems confronting Africans The book ascertains Africa's untapped potentials by proving how Africa can live without the infamy of excruciating dependency and beggarliness It makes a compelling case for African unity beyond the tokenism of officialdom It prescribes a truly pan African driven reunification of Africa as the only means of reclaiming the glory she used to enjoy before she was savagely partitioned
