Mary Hayden Lemmons, 2016-09-15 This first ever interdisciplinary study of woman as prophet shows that in these troubling times ordinary women especially Christian women need to function as prophets by proclaiming in word and deed the indispensability of lovingly seeking the welfare of others More specifically social science shows that the person centered love prophesied by women prophets is able to meet interpersonal challenges within the home and world while philosophy and theology establish that women are able to excel as prophets due to the virtuous dispositions inculcated by femininity the choice to be caring a God centered spirituality and a pro life humanitarian personalist feminism that welcomes male collaborators Facilitating the ability of Christian women to prophesy love are Baptismal graces Thomistic virtues and a much needed prophetic Marian ecclesiology based on what John Paul II calls the prophetism of femininity These interdisciplinary findings provide an essential resource for educators and students of humanity the theology of women and evangelization These findings emerge first from an investigation into the cognitive and ontological underpinnings of what John Paul II called the feminine genius A second set of findings emerges from exploring

The pivotal theme of the book is love romance marriage and those alliances which hamper a harmonious conjugal and family life Romantic love is a fascinating passion and an ecstatic experience The very word romance captures our imagination and fills our hearts with exciting feelings The book is not a scientific treatise on love It only encapsulates romantic love with all its appealing themes My effort is to describe the splendid experience called love exclusively through my impressions. The book is a product of the year 2020 marred by the Covid 19 pandemic and the terrible human exodus during the lockdown of 2020 The unexpected global and national scenario gave ample time and opportunity for reading writing and reflection Writing on a subject like romantic love helped overcome the lethargy and the feeling of devastation during the lockdown It has been an exciting creative activity and a marvellous sensation of diversion On Crime, Society, and Responsibility in the Work of Nicola Lacey Iyiola Solanke, 2021 Few contemporary scholars have done more in their work to develop the idea of responsibility than Nicola Lacey She ranks alongside thinkers and writers such as HLA Hart and Antony Honor in developing approaches to understanding responsibility Like these authors the influence of her work has spread beyond academia to change the perception of responsibility amongst practitioners Both Hart and Honor have during their lifetime had volumes dedicated to their work This book does the same for Nicola Lacey marking her ongoing influence and accomplishments in the common law world through a collection of essays by leading international scholars reflecting and interrogating her contribution to understanding criminal responsibility Additionally the book aims to promote the best legal scholarship on responsibility in the common law world and inspire the brightest legal scholars through a collection of essays designed to mark Professor Lacey's ongoing contribution to the understanding of criminal responsibility The role of Professor Lacey's work in this area as well as others cannot be overlooked her scholarship includes not only a prize winning biography of HLA Hart himself but numerous articles and tomes on the subject culminating with her most recent work In Search of Criminal Responsibility Ideas Interests and Institutions OUP 2016 This Festschrift one of few common law publications to pay homage to the erudition of a female jurist can be seen as a continuation of the themes in this book via reflection and interrogation of her work by leading scholars on the topic The Festschrift will therefore not only be a celebration of her work but also an attempt to take forward intellectual engagement with the topic of responsibility by continued engagement with her ideas Each author brings new ideas to bear on her work touching upon important aspects of responsibility that are current in the scholarship categorization frameworks for understanding criminal responsibility and the relationships between them women in criminal law the history of criminal law blameworthiness and ascriptions of responsibility moral responsibility the role of politics and political economy Nicola Lacey is a School Professor of Law Gender and Social Policy From 1998 to 2010 she held a Chair in Criminal Law and Legal Theory at the LSE she returned to the LSE in 2013 after spending three years as Senior Research Fellow at All Souls College and Professor of Criminal Law and Legal Theory at the University of Oxford She has held a number of visiting appointments most recently at Harvard Law School and the Australian National University She is an Honorary Fellow of New College Oxford and University College Oxford and a Fellow of the British Academy In 2011 she was awarded the Hans Sigrist Prize by the University of Bern for outstanding scholarship on the function of the rule of law in late modern societies and in 2018 an Honorary Doctorate by the University of Edinburgh In 2017 she was awarded a CBE for services to Law Justice and Gender Art and Responsibility Jules Simon, 2011-03-24 Two German philosophers working during the Weimar Republic in Politics Germany between the two World Wars produced seminal texts that continue to resonate almost a hundred years later Franz Rosenzweig a Jewish philosopher and Martin Heidegger a philosopher who at one time was studying to become a Catholic priest each in their own particular way include in their writings powerful philosophies of art that if approached phenomenologically and ethically provide keys to understanding their radically divergent trajectories both biographically and for their philosophical heritage Simon provides a close reading of some of their essential texts The Star of Redemption for

Rosenzweig and Being and Time and The Origin of the Work of Art for Heidegger in order to draw attention to how their philosophies of art can be understood to provide significant ethical directives Piety and Responsibility John N. Sheveland, 2016-04-22 This book analyzes the writings of Karl Rahner Karl Barth and Vedanta Desika to disclose how each construes piety and responsibility as integral to each other Each theologian expresses a fundamental unity of love of God and love of neighbour Sheveland explores this unity in ecumenical and interreligious frameworks showing how these authors privilege theology as practice enactment or simply as ethical He uses the Renaissance genre of musical polyphony as a methodological tool by which to explore the aesthetic quality and the similarity in difference of the theological voices being compared Polyphony's application to comparative theology includes the avoidance of caricature domestication and antagonism In place of these is offered a fundamentally aesthetic paradigm by which to hear theological voices in terms of their unity in distinction Understanding Love Timo Purjo, 2025-10-02 This book is a true voyage of exploration across the sea of love approaching the theme through a logotherapeutic and philosophical perspective The author PhD Timo Purjo examines love as the highest value a fundamental spiritual capacity and the deepest meaning of human existence It leads the reader from foundational philosophical principles to concrete life situations in which love is expressed as an attitude a responsibility a decision and a calling It draws upon Viktor Frankl's anthropological understanding of the human person placing emphasis on the role of the will to meaning self transcendence and responsibility in realizing authentic love The author reflects on love not just as a feeling but as a value that gives direction and purpose to human life Through philosophical analysis drawing on the insights of M Scheler K Jaspers E Fromm and other important thinkers Purjo connects the logotherapeutic understanding of meaning with fundamental questions about the nature of love the challenges it faces and its potential for growth Building upon Frankl's concept of WILL TO MEANING as the cornerstone of logotherapy Purjo expands the framework by guiding the reader toward a conscious and empowered WILL TO LOVE The practical dimension of love is also explored as love in interpersonal relationships in professional settings love directed toward imperfection love in suffering and loss and love for non human beings and nature The book includes personal stories that testify to love as a genuine and vital force in life What makes this book truly unique is that the author does not write from the position of someone who knows what love is but rather as someone who searches learns and shares with the reader what he has discovered along the way More than a theoretical exploration this book is an invitation to pause reflect and re examine the ways in which love shapes our decisions our relationships and our sense of purpose It encourages the reader to engage in the courageous act of loving not as a fleeting emotion but as an enduring orientation toward the good the true and the meaningful Through this lens love becomes not only a personal experience but an existential commitment a spiritual path and a shared human journey Understanding Love is a deeply personal yet universal book philosophical yet warm academically grounded yet accessible to anyone seeking a deeper understanding of love in their own life America .1916 Patriotism
