Slate,Clare A. Resilla,2023-09-07 Emergent Bilinguals formerly known as English Language Learners are one of the fastest growing subgroups in the United States Their educational needs are not well met by the educational system In this book we report results of empirical multiyear studies about their reading and mathematics performance both at the elementary school and high school levels Given that state education agencies collect enormous amounts of information that are typically not well analyzed this book serves as an exemplar of secondary data analyses Educational leaders educational researchers and legislators and policymakers will find the chapters in this book useful Findings from these statewide analyses can provide readers with baselines of the performance of Emergent Bilingual students prior to the Covid 19 pandemic in reading and in mathematics Changes in instructional practices and in educational programming could be made based upon the numerous statistical results present in this book Engaging Teacher Candidates and Language Learners With Authentic Practice Lenkaitis, Chesla Ann,Hilliker, Shannon M.,2019-06-28 Teacher candidates need authentic practice with language learners so that they can test and hone their skills based on the concepts learned in their teacher education programs with real students These candidates need practice before and beyond student teaching and fieldwork If they are given the chance to practice during as many teacher education courses as possible and have access to language learners throughout their programs they can focus on applying the specific content of each class they take in a real world context with real students Engaging Teacher Candidates and Language Learners With Authentic Practice highlights strategies teacher educators can use to give their teacher candidates authentic practice attached to coursework By focusing on ways that authentic practice has been integrated into teacher preparation programs and studies that have been realized this publication will provide practical ways for others to provide this authentic practice which is much needed in teacher preparation programs This book highlights topics such as pedagogy student engagement and intercultural competence and is ideal for educators administrators researchers and students Supporting STAAR Region 4 Education Service Center Staff,2013-04-01
