

A Stylistic Analysis of Selected Newspaper's Stories

FATIMAH KHUDHAIR HASSOON

College of Education for Women
University of Baghdad, Iraq

Abstract:

This study presents a stylistic analysis of newspaper stories. It is hypothesized that the language used in newspaper stories violates the rules of grammar and the norms of literary writing. Moreover their style tends to be very distinctive. This can be attributed to the limited space given to each article and the author as all journalists writes to an absent or imaginary reader that must be quickly attracted.

The study aims at:

- 1. identifying some linguistic features of newspaper language.*
- 2. shedding light on the style used in newspapers and how it differs from that used in literary writing.*

Six stories have been selected for the purpose of analysis. They are selected randomly from different English newspapers. All of them are written in the inverted pyramid style.

Three models are adopted for the purpose of the analysis of the texts.

The results show that the language and style used for writing newspaper stories deviates from the ordinary norms of writing.

Key words: inverted pyramid, language of newspaper, stylistic analysis
