The Atlantic Monthly ,1906 The West Virginia School Journal ,1904 The variorum teacher's editions of the holy Bible. With which is incorporated the Aids to the student of the holy Bible ,1882 The School Journal ,1908 University High School Journal ,1929 Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Isaac Kaufman Funk, William Seaver Woods, 1909 School Gun Violence in YA Literature Laura A. Brown, 2022-05-09 Since Columbine the topic of school shootings has become ever more prevalent in the media in research and in fiction This book provides analyses of several Young Adult YA texts about school shootings and uncovers how the authors represent such violence and those who perpetrate it while developing stories that effectively speak to their adolescent readers Employing Bronfenbrenner's Ecological Systems Theory Laura A Brown examines how the texts frame particular settings and events as important to the development of young people as a way of accounting for the shootings Likewise psychologist Peter Langman's classification of the three populations of school shooters is utilized as a framework to analyze the characterization of fictional shooters in the texts The author argues that these texts while not easy to read are important as they problematize the ways we think about approach and react to school shootings and the students who commit such acts The Educational Times and Education Outlook ,1926 Educational Times ,1897 Pennsylvania School Journal ,1869 The Popular Educator ,1856 Sunday School Times ,1888 New York School Journal ,1900 Journal of the New York State Teachers' Association ,1918 The Journal of the New York State Teachers' Association ,1918 Journal of the Association ,1919 Seamus Heaney's Gifts Henry Hart, 2024-12-13 The fact of the matter Seamus Heaney said in a 1997 interview with the Paris Review is that the most unexpected and miraculous thing in my life was the arrival in it of poetry Throughout his career Heaney who received the 1995 Nobel Prize in Literature maintained that poetry came to him from a mysterious source like a gift of grace He also believed that the recipient of this sort of boon had an ethical obligation to share it with others Seamus Heaney's Gifts by the noted scholar and poet Henry Hart offers the first comprehensive examination of Heaney's preoccupation with gifts and gift exchange Drawing on extensive research in Heaney's papers as well as three decades of correspondence with the poet Hart presents a richly detailed study of Heaney's life and work that foregrounds the Irishman's commitment to the vocation of poetry as a public art to be shared with audiences and readers around the world Heaney traced his devotion to gifts back to the actual present of a Conway Stewart fountain pen that his parents gave him at the age of twelve when he left his family farm in Northern Ireland to attend a private Catholic secondary school in Londonderry He commemorated this gift in Digging the first poem in his first book and in two poems he wrote near the end of his life The Conway Stewart and On the Gift of a Fountain Pen Friends and doctors had warned him that his endless globetrotting to give lectures and poetry readings had damaged his health Yet he felt obligated to share his talent with audiences around the world until his death in 2013 As Hart shows Heaney found his first models for gift giving in his rural community in Northern Ireland the Bible the rituals of the Catholic Church and the literature of mystical and mythical quests Blending careful research with evocative commentaries on the poet s work Seamus Heaney s Gifts explains his ideas about the artist s gift the necessity of gift exchange acts and the moral responsibility to share one s talents for the benefit of others
