

Teacher Seeds

© 2001 by Shirley Thomas
@ CraftSayings.com

Kids are like seeds
you plant in the soil.
Each takes patience,
nurturing and toil.

You are a great teacher.
You do your job well,
planting seeds of knowledge.
Just look at us to tell.

Now plant these seeds
and over each one fuss,
so they'll grow up bright
to remind you of us!

thinking and professional conversation Windows into classrooms that foster valuing of self and respect for diversity of color ethnicity and gender Activities to tap into personal strengths and enrich teaching including yoga and song Connections to relevant research I salute Dr Ruchi Rangnath for bringing together such a powerful set of teacher voices to produce a book that celebrates children and communities of Color From the Foreword by Patrick Camangian University of San Francisco This is an essential text for anyone interested in the transformational possibilities of early childhood education Rita Kohli University of California

Reach out and Touch Dr. Warren Jean Rouse, 2019-08-09 These poetic expressions are spiritually anointed to inspire heal and console As you meditate over the divinely inspired words with repetitive last verse lines it will leave an imprinted message in your mind and spirit that will continue to operate even after reading inspiring you to lift other people s heavy hearts I sometimes perceive my poetry as a continued opportunity to counsel and reach out and touch through the written form of poetic expression My poems can be used in speaking engagements small groups and support groups They have already been used in reaching out and touching others Therefore they can be used to reach out to friends and strangers and in places like mental health institutions hospitals prisons nursing homes and wherever people who are hurting may be
