

From these gestures, we the Reading Team / Teachers experience how to handle and adjust different personalities, characters, the comprehension level of our pupils, we could say that in dealing children we should be fair enough and have more patient for the slow learners. Through this experiences we have develop interest, loyalty and pre-saverance to teach our pupil to read to eradicate non readers in class.

Conclusion:

From all the experiences derived through teaching reading, we can conclude that these experiences played a great help to the reading teachers both personal and social development in teaching.

To have fair treatment with pupils, one can develop a whole some personality and strength the good relationship being established with them. By using visual aid or audio visual and also using the reading center with the Reading Instructional devices, the presentation of the lessons the pupils attention can be easily caught and deliver the lesson every well.

Teach with a smile, develop good rapport to children, don't let them feel resistant to approach us teacher. Encourage them to feel free to participate reading activities.

Conflicting Stakeholders in Higher Education Assessment H. Russell Searight,2024-08-28 Assessment requirements in universities have become nearly universal Evaluation efforts typically focus on documenting student and program learning outcomes Despite being framed as tools for enhancing educational quality decades of assessment efforts suggest that this goal is not being met This critique is contextualized within broader social historical shifts in higher education pointing out how assessment practices have paralleled trends toward corporatization and heightened administrative oversight Many assessment professionals adopted methodologies from behavioural science and educational measurement while neglecting essential measurement principles resulting in data quality issues Existing assessment measures often exhibit questionable reliability and validity undermining their effectiveness This book suggests that the prevalent summative approach to course objectives may not be the best method for improving instruction or assessing student learning Alternatives such as research derived from the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning and qualitative formative assessments may yield more meaningful quality driven information Music Assessment for Better Ensembles Brian P.
