
Summary

Anastasia finds being ten years old a confusing time. Her teacher does not understand why she doesn't capitalize or punctuate correctly. Boys are interesting in a way that they were not last year. Her parents face some changes in their lives and this has an effect on Anastasia. The possibility of a new baby brother and an aged grandmother add to the problems of Anastasia's world. Students will identify with Anastasia and her confusion.

Introductory Information and Activities

Initiating Activities

1. Look at the cover of this novel. What is unusual about the illustration? Can you find any clues about the story? Can you find any clues about the characters?
2. There are several types of stories—realistic, biographical, historical, and fantasy. Do you know what each of these types is? Can you name books that might fit in these categories?
3. What type of story do you think this will be?
4. How important is a name? Do you like your name? Why did your parents give you your name? Could your name or any person's name have an influence on a life?
5. If you were to pick out a new name, what would it be? Why would you want this name?
6. Imagine a new student who is named Anastasia Krupnik. What would you predict about her? What questions would you want her to answer about herself? Brainstorm answers, recording the answer on two large charts to display while reading the novel. As the story unfolds, revise your lists.
7. Many stories have the same parts: a setting, a problem, a goal, and a series of events that lead up to an ending, or conclusion. These story elements can be placed on a story map, just as a road map leads a driver from one place to another, so a story map leads a reader from one point to another. Let's begin a story map with just the facts we find on the back cover of the novel. We may have to revise this map as we read because we may find other characters and problems. (See page 8 of this guide.)

Recommended Procedure for Reading this Book

This book will be read one section at a time, using the DRTA (Directed Reading Thinking Activity) method. This technique involves reading a section and then predicting what will happen next (making good guesses) based on what has already occurred in the story. The students continue to read and everyone verifies the predictions. (See pages 4-5 of this guide.)
