Wagner,2012-10-12 The Power of Experience Principals Talk about School Improvement is a guide for principals both aspiring and established who hope to make a measurable difference in the achievement of all students and who strive to create a positive safe and student centered learning environment in their schools Gleaned from interviews with more than fifty principals who have been either instrumental in bringing a school to US Department of Education National Blue Ribbon status or who were identified as National Distinguished Principals by the National Association of Elementary School Principals this critical source draws on the wisdom and experience of school leaders from across the nation and from select locations around the world From Kenya to California Alaska to Wisconsin these principals reflect great diversity but unity of purpose reaching and teaching all children by building exceptional schools through exemplary leadership Whether new to the field or a veteran principal readers will benefit from the collective wisdom insight and experience of principals who have built remarkable schools designed to promote student achievement

Re-thinking Postcolonial Education in Sub-Saharan Africa in the 21st Century Edward Shizha,Ngoni Makuvaza,2017-04-17 What have postcolonial Sub Saharan African countries achieved in their education policies and programmes How far have they contributed to successful attainment of the targeted 2015 Millennium Development Goals MDGs on education What were the constraints and barriers for developing an education system that appeals to the needs of the sub region Re thinking Postcolonial Education in Sub Saharan Africa in the 21st Century Post Millennium Development Goals is an attempt to demonstrate that Sub Saharan Africa has the potential and capability to provide solutions to challenges facing its desire and ability to provide sustainable education to its people To that end the contributors are academics with an African vision attempting to come up with African home grown perspectives to fill the gap created by the lapse of the MDGs as the guiding vision and framework for educational provision in Africa and beyond The book seeks to articulate and address African issues from an informed as well as objective African perspective The book is also intended to provide insights to scholars who are interested in studying and understanding the nature of postcolonial education in the Sub Saharan African region Given the objectives and themes of this book it is intended for academic scholars undergraduate and graduate students human rights scholars curriculum developers college and university academics teachers education policy makers international organisations and local and international non governmental organisations that are interested in African education policies and programmes Rethinking Postcolonial Education in Sub Saharan Africa in the 21st Century provides contemporary reflections from multiple perspectives and re positions the issue of education at the forefront of the debates on African development Lamine Diallo Associate Professor Wilfrid Laurier University Canada The book is a welcome addition to discourses and analyses on education in sub Saharan Africa with reference to a postcolonial critique and the Millennium Development Goals framework on education in Africa Michael Tonderai Kariwo PhD Instructor and Research Fellow University of Alberta Canada Teaching, Learning and the Net Generation: Concepts and Tools for Reaching Digital Learners Ferris, Sharmila Pixy, 2011-11-30 Although a growing body of research demonstrates the need for education to adapt to the needs of the Net Generation research also shows that traditional teaching methods continue to dominate the classroom To stay effective higher education must adapt to the needs of this unique generation of digital natives who grew up with computer technologies and social media Teaching Learning and the Net Generation Concepts and Tools for Reaching Digital Learners provides pedagogical resources for understanding digital learners and effectively teaching and learning with today s generation of digital natives This book creates a much needed resource that moves beyond traditional disciplinary and geographical boundaries bridges theories and practice and addresses emerging issues in technology and pedagogy Interactional Research Into Problem-Based Learning Susan M. Bridges, Rintaro Imafuku, 2020-08-15 Problem based learning PBL has been deployed as a student centered instructional approach and curriculum design in a wide range of academic fields across the world The majority of educational research to date has focused on knowledge based outcomes addressing why PBL is useful Researchers of PBL are developing a growing interest in qualitative research with a process driven orientation to examining learning interactions It is essential to broaden this research base so as to support PBL designs and approaches to leading students into higher order thinking and a deeper approach to learning Interactional Research Into Problem Based Learning explores how students learn in an inquiry led approach such as PBL Included are studies that focus on learning in situ and go beyond measuring the outcomes of PBL The goal is to further expand the PBL research base of qualitative investigations examining the social dimension and lived experience of teaching and learning within the PBL process A second aim of this volume is to shed light on the methodological aspects of researching PBL adding new perspectives to the current trends in qualitative studies on PBL Chapters cover ethnographic approaches to video analysis introspective protocols such as stimulated recall and longitudinal qualitative studies using discourse based analytic approaches Specifically this book will further contribute to the current educational research both theoretically and empirically in the following key areas students learning processes in PBL over time and across contexts the nature of quality interactions in PBL tutorials the inter cultural aspects of learning in PBL facilitation processes and group dynamics in synchronous and asynchronous face to face and blended PBL and the developing nature of PBL learner identity
