American Book Publishing Record, 2005 Dance, Professional Practice, and the Workplace Angela Pickard, Doug Risner, 2020-01-10 Originally published as a special issue of Research in Dance Education now with an added chapter this text acknowledges and celebrates the increasingly diverse careers and employment networks in which dance professionals and dance educators are engaged Addressing issues and developments relating to the workplace of dance the text explores what it means to transcend the boundary between dance as passion and dance as employment Chapters explore challenges of professional practice including limitations on access precarity bodily risk gender inequality and sexual harassment and challenge the status quo to offer readers new ways of thinking about dance and how this might translate into professional practice and work Ultimately celebrating the passion which motivates dancers to embark on a professional career and highlighting the elation and joy which such employment can bring this volume encourages dance professionals students and educators to imagine things differently and develop teaching approaches curricula work places and communities which capitalise on the diversity and dedication of individuals in the field This text will be of great interest to graduate and postgraduate students researchers academics professionals in the field of Dance Dance Education Choreography and related art forms Curriculum studies and Sociology of Education Integrated Language Arts in the Elementary School Susan Jane Tchudi, 1994 Integrated Language Arts in the Elementary School reflects many of the most important recent developments in language arts teaching both in the United States and internationally In keeping with current theory and research in children's language learning the text emphasizes the view that the language areas should not be isolated into separate areas of study but should be integrated with an emphasis on whole meaningful experiences that absorb and engage students CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric, 1991 Gail E. Hawisher, Cynthia L. Selfe, 1993 The CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric published for the Conference on College Composition and Communication offers teachers and researchers an annual classified listing of scholarship on written English and its teaching at the college level The 1991 volume lists and annotates 1 925 articles books dissertations and papers that with few exceptions were published during the 1991 calendar year A group of 171 contributing bibliographers prepared the citations and annotations for the entries appearing in this volume The CCCC Bibliography includes an index of authors and editors a subject index and entries cross referenced according to subject matter Considerably more comprehensive than other bibliographies in composition studies the CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws upon a large group of experts in the field to aid teachers and researchers in sorting through a vast body of interdisciplinary material making their work easier and more effective Annotations accompany all entries in this volume They describe a publication's contents and are intended to help users determine its usefulness Annotations are brief and insofar as the English language allows are meant to be descriptive not evaluative they explain what an entry is about while leaving readers free to judge for themselves the work's merits Most annotations serve one of three functions they present the document's thesis main argument or major research finding they describe the work's major organizational divisions or they indicate the purpose or scope of the work The subject index lists most of the topics discussed in the works cited in this volume Consulting the Subject Index will help users locate sections and subsections containing large numbers of entries addressing the same topic Each document is cited and annotated only once under one of the five major sections of the CCCC Bibliography Each entry however receives an entry number so that cross references to other sections are possible This feature is especially useful because much scholarship in composition and rhetoric is interdisciplinary in nature Cross references appear as a listing of entry numbers preceded by See also found at the end of each subsection Entries appear under five major categories bibliographies and checklists theory and research teacher education administration and social roles curriculum and testing measurement and evaluation Although the CCCC Bibliography excludes master's theses textbooks computer software and book reviews from its coverage it furnishes citations to review essays articles appearing in some 220 journals scholarly monographs and essay collections dissertations abstracted in Dissertation Abstracts International and selected documents and conference materials available through ERIC When
