

Night Reading Guide Chapter 2-3

Chapter 2

1. After the train stopped, a German officer shouted that anyone who still owns what must hand them over now?

Gold, silver, or watches

2. Who started screaming "Fire! I see a fire! I see a fire!"?

Mrs. Schachter

3. What smell was in the air?

Smell of burning flesh

Think/Write/Share

The purpose of the Think/Write/Share activity is to give students time to think, process, and write before sharing with partners, small groups, or in whole group. (Suggested time: Give students 1-2 minutes to think and write before sharing.)

Do you think Mrs. Schachter actually saw fire?

Students might discuss:

No, Mrs. Schachter didn't see fire; she was under stress and was grieving; she was crazy; it was just a premonition; this is an example of foreshadowing; the fire is a symbol for the events of the Holocaust, etc.

Yes, Mrs. Schachter did see fire. Perhaps she saw some fire in the distance; For Mrs. Schachter, her premonitions were very real, etc.

Why do you think Weiss includes this person in his memoir?

Students might discuss how Mrs. Schachter was expressing the fears they were all trying to avoid, how the others treated her and continued to ignore the danger, how she foreshadowed the crematoria, how this scene created a lot of suspense and tension, how it is might relate to her and her son because he is also just a child.

Your Library Is the Answer Christina T. Russo, Cathy Swan, 2015-01-22 Today's tech savvy and digitally connected students present a new challenge for today's school librarians. This book offers the 21st century tools and know how necessary for educators to appeal to and challenge students to learn and to want to learn. What are the best ways to motivate students to become engaged and develop a passion for learning? Can appealing to their desire for socialization and constant communication attributes of their lives outside of education via the integration of cutting edge technologies and new media in the library or classroom serve to ignite creativity, curiosity and critical thinking? This book shows how you can make use of non traditional tools such as popular social networks, collaborative technologies and cloud computing to teach information and communications technologies integrated with the school curriculum to improve student learning and demonstrates how these same technologies can help you measure skills and mastery learning. The book provides an easy to follow blueprint for using collaborative techniques, innovation and teaching for creativity to achieve the new learning paradigm of self directed learning such as flipping the classroom or library. Readers of this book will find concrete step by step examples of proven lesson plans, collaborative models and time saving strategies for the successful integration of American Association of School Librarians (AASL) standards. The authors, both award winning teachers, explain the quantitatively and qualitatively measurable educational value of using these technologies for core curricular and information and communications technologies instruction, showing that they both enhance student learning outcomes and provide data for measuring their impact on learning.

More Grammar to Get Things Done Darren Crovitz, Michelle D. Devereaux, 2019-10-21 CO PUBLISHED BY ROUTLEDGE AND THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF TEACHERS OF ENGLISH. Complementing Crovitz and Devereaux's successful Grammar to Get Things Done, this book demystifies grammar in context and offers day by day guides for teaching ten grammar concepts, giving teachers a model and vocabulary for discussing grammar in real ways with their students. Through applied practice in real world contexts, the authors explain how to develop students' mastery of grammar and answer difficult questions about usage, demonstrating how grammar acts as a tool for specific purposes in students' lives. Accessibly written and organized, the book provides ten adaptable activity guides for each concept, illustrating instruction from a user-based perspective. Middle and high school preservice and inservice English teachers will gain confidence in their own grammar knowledge and learn how to teach grammar in ways that are uniquely accessible and purposeful for students.
