Teaching Psychology Douglas A. Bernstein, Sue Frantz, Stephen L. Chew, 2024-12-11 Now in its fourth edition Teaching Psychology: A Step By Step Guide synthesizes the latest pedagogical research on effective teaching and translates it into recommendations for classroom application. It explores the rapidly changing academic landscape and offers innovative ideas for teaching psychology and creating inclusive classrooms where all students can experience a sense of belongingness and psychological safety. This comprehensive volume covers key topics such as planning a course, choosing teaching methods that promote well-being, diversity, and inclusion, assimilating technology including Artificial Intelligence, and the integration of teaching into the rest of your academic life. The authors include an abundance of supportive supplementary content to guide and inform new teachers, including their own real-life anecdotes and examples. Fully revised throughout, this new edition analyses updated research on topics such as student evaluations of teaching, establishing the value of your courses, student motivation, and trigger warnings. This edition also features a completely new chapter on teaching psychology abroad and focuses on the goals of post-pandemic teaching, including harnessing the power of online and hybrid teaching environments. Presenting a valuable and cutting-edge guide for psychology teachers, this book is a vital resource for those who are training psychology instructors or undertaking a teaching psychology course. It is also a useful text for more experienced faculty who wish to reevaluate their current teaching practices and explore new teaching ideas and techniques.

The Elementary School Library Collection, Phases 1-2-3 ,2000 Teaching and Learning Astronomy Jay

Pasachoff, John Percy, 2005-12-15 Astronomy is taught in schools worldwide but few schoolteachers have any background in astronomy or astronomy teaching and available resources may be insufficient or non-existent. This volume highlights the many places for astronomy in the curriculum, relevant education research and best practice strategies for pre-service and in-service teacher education, the use of the Internet and other technologies and the role that planetariums, observatories, science centres and organisations of professional and amateur astronomers can play. The special needs of developing countries and other under-resourced areas are also highlighted. The book concludes by addressing how the teaching and learning of astronomy can be improved worldwide. This valuable overview is based on papers and posters presented by experts at a Special Session of the International Astronomical Union.
