Teaching Bibliography Textual Criticism And Book History:

Teaching Bibliography, Textual Criticism and Book History Ann R Hawkins, 2015-10-06 Offers a variety of approaches to incorporating discussions of book history or print culture into graduate and undergraduate classrooms This work considers the book as a literary historical cultural and aesthetic object These essays are of interest to university teachers incorporating textual studies and research methods into their courses

Textual Scholarship and the Material Book Wim Van Mierlo, 2007 In the last decades the emphasis in textual scholarship has moved onto creation production process collaboration onto the material manifestations of a work onto multiple rather than single versions onto reception and book history Textual scholarship now includes not only textual editing but any form of scholarship that looks at the materiality of text of writing of reading and of the book The essays in this collection explore many questions about methodology and theory arising from this widening scope of textual scholarship The range of texts discussed from Sanskrit epic via Medieval Latin commentary through English and Scottish Ballads to the plays of Samuel Beckett and the stories of Guimarães Rosa testifies to the vigour of the discipline The range of texts is matched by a range of approach from theoretical discussion of how text happens to analysis of issues of book design and censorship the connections between literary and textual studies exploration of the links between reception and commodification in George Eliot and between information theory and paratext Through this diversity of subject and approach a common theme emerges the need to look further for common ground from which to continue the debate from a comparative perspective
