

The background of the slide is a photograph of a vast, golden wheat field. The wheat stalks are in sharp focus in the foreground, creating a textured, rhythmic pattern. In the distance, a flat horizon line separates the field from a sky filled with warm, orange and yellow light. A large, bright sun is positioned in the upper center of the frame, casting a soft glow over the entire scene. The overall mood is peaceful and hopeful, evoking the themes of sowing and reaping.

Parenting by Design Chris and Michelle Groff with Lee Long, 2014-04 Raising children is no easy task No matter the child no matter the situation every parent longs for obedience from their offspring God isn't overbearing when He deals with us and His example is perfect There's no question that kids want truth and love as well as bonding and boundaries Because God understands the human condition He knows we learn best from hands on experience Jesus example and the Holy Spirit's empathetic examination of our hearts We're asking you to consider using the same parenting style with your children Parenting by Design offers a more relational approach to raising children relying less on rote obedience and more on walking with your children through their decision making development Forcing children to obey rarely works to build a healthy relationship that allows you to enter into their worlds and understand their decisions This book will help you parent with grace and love two key elements in motivating a child to obey Somebody Forgot to Tell the Kids Jeanne S. Silvers, 2013-12 In a nation rampant with political confusion economic upheaval societal splintering a breakdown in simple civility and the reality of fractured families it's difficult to even imagine what today's young people may face in fifty to sixty years The future of our children our grandchildren and our great grandchildren rests squarely upon our shoulders In Somebody Forgot to Tell the Kids author Jeanne S Silvers examines the state of the world from the church's perspective Through this discussion she addresses a conundrum Is the church in America largely ineffective today because of the depraved state of our society or is our society in that corrupt state because the church is largely ineffective Silvers uses personal anecdotes and stories from Scripture to present her ideas about leaving a legacy of Christian values for modern youth Somebody Forgot to Tell the Kids examines how our world has become what it has and provides solutions for turning it around and beginning to minister the grace and compassion of Jesus to a broken nation Silvers shows how it took only one man on Mount Carmel to set a nation on a new path one faith filled man who was willing to step out from the crowd and obey the Lord Will there be one of these for America
