TEACHING GUIDES

for Teaching for
Comprehending and Fluency

Teaching for Comprehending and Fluency: Reading, Talking, and Writing about Reading, 4-12 is an excellent book for a college or university course or a professional development program. We have created several teaching guides for:

1. in one-semester college or university courses for preservice teachers.
2. in one-quarter college or university courses for preservice teachers.
3. in one-semester graduate-level courses in teacher's degree programs.
4. in one-quarter graduate-level courses in teacher's degree programs.
5. in different local professional development programs or study groups.

Others in the teaching guides will respond to the book for its effectiveness in helping us to become better teachers.

It is our hope that you will find this book a valuable resource for your teaching. We are grateful to the many who have helped us to make this book a reality. We are grateful to the many who have helped us to make this book a reality.
