Cultivating Reasonableness in Education Marella Ada V. Mancenido-Bolaños,Cathlyne Joy P. Alvarez-Abarejo,Leander Penaso Marquez,2023-09-19 This book focuses on the real world application of the Philosophy for with Children P4wC pedagogy to cultivate reasonableness in individuals through communities of philosophical inquiry It presents a collection not only of theories but more importantly of experiences discoveries and innovations on P4wC by scholars trainers advocates and practitioners around the world Each chapter provides readers with insights and lessons that have resulted from the continuous application exploration and enrichment of the concepts principles and practices that were developed by Matthew Lipman and Ann Margaret Sharp into what P4wC is today a dialogic pedagogical approach that may just be what is needed at a time when reasonableness and dialogue are essential to maintaining global stability and progress In this light this book also looks into how the P4wC approach can be practiced with adults such as when it is employed in various settings or contexts such as in business consulting textbook writing peace education and extremism prevention among others Furthermore this book also features chapters that discuss how the P4wC pedagogy can be beneficial once integrated into processes such as classroom teaching teacher education bioethics and employee education This book provides valuable insights about how reasonableness that is cultivated through building communities of philosophical inquiry in education can be a powerful tool for nation building and social transformation      Education and Power in Contemporary Southeast Asia Azmil

Tayeb,Rosalie Metro,Will Brehm,2023-07-18 This book focuses on education and power in Southeast Asia and analyzes the ways in which education has been instrumentalized by state non state and private actors across this diverse region The book looks at how countries in Southeast Asia respond to the endogenous and exogenous influences in shaping their education systems Chapters observe and study the interplay between education and power in Southeast Asia which offers varying political social cultural religious and economic diversities The political systems in Southeast Asia range from near consolidated democracy in Indonesia to illiberal democracy in Singapore and Thailand to the communist regime in Laos to absolute monarchy in Brunei Structured in three parts i centralization and decentralization ii privatization and marketization and iii equity and justice these themes are discussed in single country and or multi country studies in the Southeast Asian region Bringing together scholars from and focused on Southeast Asia this book fills a gap in the literature on education in Southeast Asia      Research in Education ,1972      The Routledge Handbook of English Language Education in the Philippines Julius C. Martinez,Isabel Pefianco Martin,2025-09-30 This handbook serves as a comprehensive resource on English language education in the Philippines addressing a wide range of issues including ideologies multilingualism identities policies methodologies assessment teacher education and curriculum Chapters cover a range of educational contexts from Luzon to Mindanao islands from basic to higher education and from formal to non formal schooling This book upholds the think and do otherwise perspective by problematizing contemporary paradigms and practices that operate from naturalized ideas inherited from the American colonizers This includes repairing pedagogies that redress injustices experienced by historically marginalized groups and hoping for possibilities and approaches to teaching and learning English that are just equitable and inclusive The six sections in the Handbook bring up conditions for thinking and doing otherwise pointing to ways in which genuine changes can start to happen Scholars from diverse backgrounds come together in this handbook to take collective ownership of English language education in the Philippines This ownership does not mean ignoring and disposing of the country s colonial past but reclaiming English language education as an ongoing project instead This handbook likewise demonstrates that such a project makes it possible for wider audiences to see that Global South scholars from and in the Philippines also have much to teach the rest of the world about thinking and doing otherwise and by extension problematizing repairing and hoping Given its scope and breadth the handbook is an invaluable reference for students pre service and in service teachers teacher educators researchers and policymakers interested in English language language education TESOL sociolinguistics and applied linguistics

International Perspectives on Teachers Living with Curriculum Change Martin Wedell, Laura Grassick, 2017-11-10 This book gives a voice to English language teachers faced with the challenges posed by English language curriculum change As a core component of national state system curricula in virtually every country in the world there has nevertheless been little research exploring how the millions of English teachers worldwide navigate the challenges posed by such curriculum changes This volume includes eleven stories from teachers based across every continent providing a global glimpse of how national English curriculum change projects have been experienced by classroom teachers who are commonly if erroneously viewed as mostly responsible for its implementation success or failure The final chapter synthesises these experiences and suggests wider implications for the development of curriculum change planning processes and how they might better support teachers attempts to achieve curriculum goals Edited and authored by leading experts in the field this ground breaking collection will be of interest to students and scholars of English language teaching teacher education curriculum change and education policy

Global Perspectives on Education Research, Vol. II Liesel Ebersöhn, Ingrid Gogolin, 2023-05-31 Presenting a wide range of new research from World Education Research Association WERA affiliated scholars pertaining to democracy and education this volume including topics such as school readiness in Mongolia high stakes teacher evaluation policy in Japan and family and community involvement in global educational advocacy This collection arrives at a time of extreme global challenges leaving researchers teachers students families and policymakers without a baseline of how to act react and be proactive to stem the chronic flow of disruption to global education systems These challenges require researchers worldwide to consider how evidence can support individuals and systems to buffer against extreme global health distress and conflict whilst simultaneously supporting the continued functioning of education systems and processes Such processes must allow students teachers leaders administrators and members of the educational communities to retain positive self esteem and maintain supportive relationships and systems that provide the appropriate conditions for such processes Global Perspectives on Education Research pulls together contributions from different contexts and cultures to distil vistas and research results that can enlighten a worldwide community of researchers education professionals and practitioners as well as policymakers and local national or supra national decision makers This text is also the ideal companion for educators and leaders alike as they navigate the uncertainty within global health and social justice
