Running with the Angels Colette (Ruel) Howery,2024-11-29 Running with the Angels is the story of a mother s sudden loss of her son a loss that shattered her to the core of her being Writing a book did not enter her mind as she worked through her intense grief However words seemed to write themselves as the author studied journaled jotted notes on scrap paper recorded her thoughts and feelings wiped the tears off her face and documents kept writing in a confused mixture of English French and occasional swear words Persisting through the mess paragraphs appeared some chapters lined up a book took shape as the mother s grief became reconciled and integrated over the years Now it has evolved into a completed memoir May this book serve as a survival guide and a source of hope for all bereaved mothers and fathers     Laughter Salad

Kimberly Ann Borin,2012-08-02 Stories define our experiences and connect us to our global community In Laughter Salad author Dr Kimberly Ann Borin narrates the moments that have defined her life as an athlete teacher counselor and travelera mixture of laughter and nourishment In this collection of inspirational true stories and playful art Borin shares vignettes and times of synchronicity serendipity and miracles that bring us closer to our hearts desiresreminders that we are exactly where we need to be Including tales of her travels around the world Laughter Salad tells of Borin riding her bicycle across the United States running a fifty mile race healing from a concussion and learning how to be a performance artist Funny sincere humbling and comforting Borins experiences remind us that we are precious and that we each have a gift to bring to the world Through the stories told Laughter Salad communicates that our journeys matter and that along the way we offer gifts to make the world a better brighter place     Trauma and Grief R. Scott Sullender,2018-07-06 In today s world trauma and traumatic loss are increasingly common This book surveys the important constructs concepts and dynamics of trauma loss grief and growth offering resources and strategies that ministers and other spiritual caregivers can use as they support and facilitate people in their journey from trauma recovery to grief work to spiritual growth The book presents a framework for understanding the interrelationship between trauma recovery work grief work and spiritual growth The author argues that each of these components is essential for a full and complete healing from trauma and traumatic losses and that they work together in the ongoing process of healing Traumas and traumatic losses are times of crisis in the sense that they are turning points in people s lives people can either grow through the experience or decline under the weight of their unbearable sorrow and anxiety How people handle traumas and significant losses may be the most important variable in their psychological relational and spiritual health The author gives special attention to describing ways in which God might draw close to the traumatized and bereaved in their process of recovery and healing      Families in Later Life Alexis

Walker,2001-01-22 The introductory essays and readings drawn from both literature and social science research vividly illustrate the diversity of aging experiences both within and across American families diversity conditioned by social space historical time and individual biography Eleanor Palo Stoller Selah Chamberlain Professor of Sociology Case Western Reserve University Families in Later Life is the only textbook on the subject that addresses the diversity of aging experiences in society by race gender and social class and in a form which combines insight from the humanities as well as the social sciences Includes a balance between empirical selections and literary pieces keeping students interested and engaged while still introducing them to solid research Every social science article included has been carefully edited so those students learn and enjoy their reading to the maximum extent possible Framing Essays by the Editors Questions for Discussion and a complete Index make this book even more useful for teaching      Exhale Amy Carroll,Cheri Gregory,2019-06-04 Move from running on empty to spent and content Exhale is for the woman who is suffocating under the pressures of being all things to all people The pressure of filling every unfilled spot at church home and work The pressure of trying to do it all right make decisions that benefit everyone else and keep everyone happy Rather than adding more to your to do list in this book Amy Carroll and Cheri Gregory show you how to lose who you re not love who you are live your one life well This isn t a time management book filled with how to lists and calendar tools Rather it walks you through a process that releases you from the things that have created unbearable pressure Then you ll be free to start investing your life in ways that fulfill the desires of your heart benefit your people and bring glory to God Includes Now Breathe activities that correspond to each chapter s content and interactive assessments to help you move toward gentle change      No Time for Tears Judy Heath,Bernie

Siegel,2015-05-01 Facing the loss of a loved one in a death avoidant culture can be excruciating Grievers may be expected to put on a brave face to move on quickly and to seek medication if they are still grief stricken after an acceptable amount of time Psycho therapist Judy Heath draws on extensive experience as a grief specialist in private practice to help those struggling with the anguish of loss Addressing the myths and misinformation about mourning that still abound today Heath gently coaches readers to understand that coping with loss is a natural process that our society tends to avoid and hurry people through often leading to unresolved lasting grief No Time for Tears offers practical advice for both short and long term recovery including how to manage rarely discussed physical and emotional changes feelings of going crazy and inability to focus feeling out of sync with the world exhausted and chilled and crushingly lonely This updated second edition includes new information about medication and discusses various types of loss including that of a parent child spouse friend or pet Helpful not only to griever's but also to those who care about counsel or employ them No Time for Tears is an essential resource for grief management and recovery
