Altschuler, David I. Grossvogel, 1992 With weekly sales of 20 million copies TV Guide has had the largest circulation of any magazine in the U S and has dealt for decades with contemporary social and political issues Here is a star studded tour of television history that also chronicles the publication's more recent moves under the ownership of Rupert Murdoch Photographs Primetime 1966-1967 Thom "Beefstew" Shubilla, 2022-05-05 The year 1966 was when many TV viewers all over America discovered the wonders of in living color The 1966 1967 primetime television lineup was remarkable not only for the legendary shows that aired but also because it was the first season in which every show on primetime across all three major networks was broadcast entirely in color Celebrating this iconic year of television this book covers every scripted episodic show that aired on the ABC CBS and NBC networks during the 1966 1967 season in primetime It includes longtime favorites such as Batman Bonanza Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea and The Lucy Show and the notable shows that premiered that year such as Star Trek The Monkees Green Hornet Mission Impossible It's About Time and the color revival of Dragnet Organized by genre each entry examines a show from conception to cancellation and sometimes beyond ratings critical and fan reactions and the show's use of color

One Dead Indian Peter Edwards, 2011-06-22 On September 4 1995 several Stoney Point Natives entered Ipperwash Provincial Park near Sarnia Ontario and began a peaceful protest aimed at reclaiming a traditional burial ground Within seventy two hours one of those protestors Anthony Dudley George was dead shot by an OPP officer In One Dead Indian after covering the tragedy from the beginning journalist Peter Edwards examines the circumstances surrounding George's death and asks a number of tough questions including How much pressure did the Ontario government put on the OPP to get tough As the official public inquiry attempt to shed light on what really happened Peter Edwards's investigation of this question brings the story right up to the present Forbes Bertie Charles Forbes, 1951 This business magazine covers domestic and international business topics Special issues include Annual Report on American Industry Forbes 500 Stock Bargains and Special Report on Multinationals American Television Nick Browne, 2013-07-18 This work brings together writings on television published in Quarterly Review of Film and Video from essays by Nick Browne and Beverle Houston to the latest historical and critical research It considers television's economics technologies forms and audiences from a cultural perspective that links history theory and criticism The authors address several key issues the formative period in American television history the relation between television's political economy and its cultural forms gender and melodrama and new technologies such as video games and camcorders Originally published in 1993 Living Room Lectures Nina C.

Leibman, 2010-07-22 With a breadwinner dad a homemaker mom and squeaky clean kids the 1950s television family has achieved near mythological status as a model of what real families ought to be Yet feature films of the period often portrayed families in trouble with parents and children in conflict over appropriate values and behaviors Why were these representations of family apparently so far apart Nina Leibman analyzes many feature films and dozens of TV situation comedy episodes from 1954 to 1963 to find surprising commonalities in their representations of the family Redefining the comedy as a family melodrama she compares film and television depictions of familial power gender roles and economic attitudes Leibman's explorations reveal how themes of guilt deceit manipulation anxiety and disfunctionality that obviously characterize such movies as Rebel without a Cause A Summer Place and Splendor in the Grass also crop up in such TV shows as The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet Father Knows Best Leave It to Beaver The Donna Reed Show and My Three Sons Drawing on interviews with many of the participants of these productions archival documents and trade journals Leibman sets her discussion within a larger institutional history of 1950s film and television Her discussions shed new light not only on the reasons for both media's near obsession with family life but also on changes in American society as it reconfigured itself in the postwar era

Cross-media Promotion Jonathan Hardy, 2010 Cross media promotion is one of the most salient characteristics in our modern media systems arising out of a context that involves virtually every level of media studies media ownership advertising and funding technological trends and regulatory issues the latter a specialty of the author of this book These factors often work together and Hardy is masterful in interweaving in an insightful but accessible way the complexity of media promotion From the Foreword by Matthew P McAllister Penn State University Book Jacket
