Barry Levis,2022-06-30 Before Queen Anne s reign had even begun rival factions in both Church and State were jostling for position in her court Attempting to follow a moderate course the new monarch and her advisors had to be constantly wary of the attempts of extremists on both sides to gain the upper hand The result was a see saw period of alternating influence that has fascinated historians and political commentators In this engaging new study Barry Levis shows that although both parties claimed to be in support of the Church their real aim was advancing their respective political positions Uniting close analysis of Queen Anne s changing policies towards dissenters occasional conformity and church appointments with studies of the careers of several prominent churchmen and politicians Levis paints a gripping picture of competing religious values and political ambitions Most significantly he shows that far from being restricted to the church and political elites these conflicts were to have a cascading influence on the division of the country long after the Queen s reign ended

Granville Sharp's Uncovered Letter and the Zong Massacre Michelle Faubert,2018-08-02 This book delineates the discovery of a previously unknown manuscript of a letter from Granville Sharp the first British abolitionist to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty In the letter Sharp demands that the Admiralty bring murder charges against the crew of the Zong for forcing 132 enslaved Africans overboard to their deaths Uncovered by Michelle Faubert at the British Library in 2015 the letter is reproduced here accompanied by her examination of its provenance and significance for the history of slavery and abolition As Faubert argues the British Library manuscript is the only fair copy of Sharp s letter and extraordinary evidence of Sharp s role in the abolition of slavery
