Wellington Jenny Harper, Aaron Lister, 2007 Featuring brilliant urban photography this celebration of the dynamic presence of sculpture in Wellington vividly captures more than 40 sculptures throughout the city s streets and parks An informative and provocative examination of the sculptures origins this collection shows how many of the gorgeous art works came into being due to the shared vision of individuals government agencies and corporations who value the relationship of art and city to brighten the lives of its citizens The result is both a visual feast and a unique record of the 21st century city s fabric sure to be treasured by travelers art enthusiasts and locals alike      The Unity of Public Law? Mark Elliott, Jason NE Varuhas, Shona Wilson Stark, 2018-04-19 This major collection contains selected papers from the second Public Law Conference an international conference hosted by the University of Cambridge in September 2016 The collection includes contributions by leading academics and judges from across the common law world including senior judges from Australia Canada New Zealand and the UK The contributions engage with the theme of unity and disunity from a number of perspectives offering a rich panoply of insights into public law which significantly carry forward public law thinking across common law jurisdictions setting the agenda for future research and legal development Part 1 of the volume contains chapters which offer doctrinal and theoretical perspectives Some chapters seek to articulate a unifying framework for understanding public law while others seek to demonstrate the plurality of public law through the method of legal taxonomy A number of chapters analyse whether different fields such as human rights and administrative law are merging with others considering specific unifying themes or concepts in public law The chapters in Part 2 offer comparative perspectives charting and analysing convergence and divergence across common law systems Specific topics include standing proportionality human rights remedies use of foreign precedents legal transplants and disunity and unity among subnational jurisdictions The collection will be of great interest to those working in public law      Constitutionally Conforming Interpretation - Comparative Perspectives Matthias Klatt, 2023-11-02 This is the first part of a 2 volume set that presents an in depth investigation into the canon of constitutionally conforming interpretation These volumes address the fundamental issues the canon raises in the national supranational and international contexts In volume 1 experts from 19 jurisdictions including Brazil Canada India the UK and the USA present reports which give concise overviews of the approaches and debates on constitutionally conforming interpretation These reports cover the structural background the conditions of application as well as issues of competence Further aspects discussed are its perceived normativity and popularity in everyday legal practice Together with volume 2 which explores the canon s use and theoretical impact beyond the national context in a comparative and critical manner this book fills an important gap in legal scholarship and sets the stage for cross national discourse      A Spot of Bother Mark Haddon, 2009-09-17 George Hall is an unobtrusive man A little distant perhaps a little cautious not quite at ease with the emotional demands of fatherhood or of manly bonhomie The secret of contentment George felt lay in ignoring many things completely Some things in life can t be ignored however his tempestuous daughter Katie s deeply inappropriate boyfriend Ray for instance or the sudden appearance of a red circular rash on his hip At 57 George is settling down to a comfortable retirement building a shed in his garden and enjoying the freedom to be alone when he wants But then he runs into a spot of bother That red circular rash on his hip George convinces himself it s skin cancer And the deeply inappropriate Ray Katie announces he will become her second husband The planning for these frowned upon nuptials proves a great inconvenience to George s wife Jean who is carrying on a late life affair with her husband s ex colleague The Halls do not approve of Ray for vague reasons summed up by their son Jamie's observation that Ray has strangler's hands. Jamie himself has his own problems; his tidy and pleasant life comes apart when he fails to invite his lover Tony to Katie's wedding. And Katie, a woman whose ferocious temper once led to the maiming of a carjacker, can't decide if she loves Ray or loves the wonderful way he has with her son Jacob. Unnoticed in the uproar, George quietly begins to go mad. The way these damaged people fall apart and come together as a family is the true subject of Haddon's hilarious and disturbing portrait of a dignified man trying to go insane politely. A Spot of Bother is Mark Haddon's unforgettable follow-up to the internationally beloved bestseller The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-time. Once again, Haddon proves a master of a story at once hilarious, poignant, dark, and profoundly human. Here, the madness literally of family life proves rich comic fodder for Haddon's crackling prose and bittersweet insights into misdirected love. The Anatomy of Administrative Law Joanna Bell, 2020-05-28

Winner of the 2022 Inner Temple New Authors Book Prize. This book seeks to further our understanding of the nature of administrative law doctrine and adjudication. It has three main aims. The first is to improve understanding of administrative law's anatomy by pulling the subject apart and exploring the nature of the legal structures at play in adjudication. In doing so, the book emphasises three main ways in which administrative law's anatomy is both complex and diverse: namely, administrative law doctrine interacts with a broad array of legislative frameworks; administrative law adjudication seeks to accommodate a variety of legal values; and administrative law is concerned with legal relationships of different kinds. The second aim is to illustrate the importance of recognising the complexity and variety of administrative law's anatomy in three particular doctrinal contexts: procedural review, legitimate expectations, and standing. The third and final aim is to raise an important but under-explored question: is it plausible and useful to attempt to make sense of administrative law doctrine by reference to a singular organising concept or principle? The overarching message of the book is one of cynicism: the complexity and variety of administrative law's legal structures probably means that attempts to explain the field monistically, while they may capture important themes, will be unhelpfully reductionist. Ambitious and thought-provoking, this is an important new statement on administrative law. The Bible, the Bullet, and the Ballot Fabulous Moyo, 2015-03-05

This book provides a balanced account of the role of Christians, Christian organizations, and churches in sociopolitical transformation over the bedrock of colonial and nationalist politics in the past century in Zimbabwe. The work explores the broader social and political impact of prominent African Christian clergy who were sociopolitical activists, such as Ndabaningi Sithole, Abel Muzorewa, and Canaan Banana. It also highlights the role of missionaries who contributed to the African struggle for independence, such as Ralph Edward Dodge, Donal Lamont, and Garfield Todd. The work further explores the contributions of African nationalist parties and prominent politicians with Christian roots, such as Joshua Nkomo and Robert Mugabe, in the struggle for independence and their contribution in the postcolonial era in light of their Christian heritage and the collective pre-independence nationalist ideals on nation building and national unity. BMJ, 1997 Actors and Performers

Understanding Administrative Law in the Common Law World Paul Daly, 2021 This book offers a new framework for understanding contemporary administrative law through a comparative analysis of case law from Australia Canada England Ireland and New Zealand The author argues that the field is structured by four values individual self realisation good administration electoral legitimacy and decisional autonomy

Cultural, Psychological, and Typological Issues in Cognitive Linguistics Masako Hiraga, Chris Sinha, Sherman Wilcox, 1999 Cognitive linguistics is nothing if not an interdisciplinary and comparative enterprise This collection addresses both the implications OF and the implications FOR cognitive linguistics of psycholinguistic computational neuroscientific cross cultural and cross linguistic research

Colonial Situations George W. Stocking, 1991-10-01 As European colonies in Asia and Africa became independent nations as the United States engaged in war in Southeast Asia and in covert operations in South America anthropologists questioned their interactions with their subjects and worried about the political consequences of government supported research By 1970 some spoke of anthropology as the child of Western imperialism and as scientific colonialism Ironically as the link between anthropology and colonialism became more widely accepted within the discipline serious interest in examining the history of anthropology in colonial contexts diminished This volume is an effort to initiate a critical historical consideration of the varying colonial situations in which and out of which ethnographic knowledge essential to anthropology has been produced The essays comment on ethnographic work from the middle of the nineteenth century to nearly the end of the twentieth in regions from Oceania through southeast Asia the Andaman Islands and southern Africa to North and South America The colonial situations also cover a broad range from first contact through the establishment of colonial power from District Officer administrations through white settler regimes from internal colonialism to international mandates from early pacification to wars of colonial liberation from the expropriation of land to the defense of ecology The motivations and responses of the anthropologists discussed are equally varied the romantic resistance of MacLay and the complicity of Kurylow in early colonialism Malinowski's salesmanship of academic anthropology Speck's advocacy of Indian land rights Schneider's grappling with the ambiguities of rapport and Turner's facilitation of Kaiapo cinematic activism

Provides fresh insights for those who care about the history of science in general and that of anthropology in particular and a valuable reference for professionals and graduate students Choice Among the most distinguished publications in anthropology as well as in the history of social sciences George Marcus Anthropologica New Scientist ,1997
