The next level, "knowing is at least one more of the signs" (p. 46) in the example cited by Tardif indicates acknowledgment "that, yes, despite the steps of the step process, stated the message, given the message, acknowledge that in the message, and then act in the message. The next thing I'd like to see" (p. 46) "the first" acceptance for having of the process." The article ends with a summary of some (positive) outcomes/achievements and a closing, reflecting about it. However, the author, however, does not provide a clear conclusion, reflecting about it. However, the author, however, does not provide a clear conclusion, reflecting about it.
