Derrick Bang, 2024-05-15 Although Vince Guaraldi s playful jazz piano themes for the early Peanuts animated television specials are well known the composer himself remains largely unheralded More than merely the Peanuts guy Guaraldi cut his jazz teeth as a member of combos fronted by Cal Tjader and Woody Herman and garnered Top 40 fame with his Grammy Award winning hit Cast Your Fate to the Wind This career study extensively updated gives Guaraldi long overdue recognition chronicling his years as a sideman his attraction to the emerging bossa nova sound of the late 1950s his collaboration with Brazilian guitarist Bola Sete his development of the Grace Cathedral Jazz Mass his selection as the fellow to put the jazz swing in Charlie Brown s step and his emergence as a respected veteran in the declining Northern California jazz club scene of the 1970s Ironically his place in the jazz universe has grown exponentially since this book s initial 2012 publication and this second edition acknowledges such honors and features a wealth of new material The Substitute Teacher Samson Kamara, 2009-08 Teaching is a dedicated job for people who are interested in molding young lives But when one is both black and a substitute teacher with an accent the job becomes very challenging Teaching is a white color and middle class job Alpha being black with an accent had a real trip to hell and back because he had a daily shower of humiliations torturous and sometimes disrespectful and overt racist instances His determination was stretched to the limits of physical and mental endurance in the public school where racism ethnic cleansing hatred for people of color and accent exerted their weight like lead The result was frustration demotivation and the feeling of hopelessness This novel is a true story of classroom encounter but the names places and scenes are fictitious Alpha stayed at the end of the line with all his qualifications and experience while those who came after him less qualified and experience moved on But the organization and maintenance of the system was like a sinking old flag ship Sleeping with the Entity Cat Devon, 2025-10-16 Meet Daniella Delaney She s all ready to
