The Forgotten People Saleem Badat,2013-01-29 The apartheid state employed many weapons against its opponents imprisonment banning detention assassination and banishment In a practice reminiscent of Tsarist and Soviet Russia a large number of enemies of the state were banished to remote areas far from their homes communities and followers Here their existence became a slow torture of the soul a kind of social death This is the first study of an important but hitherto neglected group of opponents of apartheid set in a global historical and comparative perspective It looks at the reasons why people were banished their lives in banishment and the efforts of a remarkable group of activists led by Helen Joseph to assist them Bantoe-onderwysblad ,1978 Against All Odds Dr. Simon George Taukeni,2017-01-12 This is a true life story of a poor ordinary orphan and a Namibian refugee boy who did extraordinary things in a normal but amazing way It is the life of a poor village boy who did supernatural things with a simple smile ICEL2016-Proceedings of the 11th International Conference on e- Learning Prof. Dr. Rozhan M. Idrus and Dr Nurkhamimi Zainuddin,2016 Hani Janet Smith,Beauregard Tromp,2023-02-28 This is an excellent portrayal of the Chris I knew Not one word of exaggeration so large was Chris His contribution to our freedom is inestimable Mavuso Msimang ANC veteran and former member of the military high command of uMkhonto we Sizwe Chris Hani s assassination in 1993 gave rise to two of South Africa s greatest political questions If he had survived what impact would he have had on the ANC government And could this charismatic man have risen to become president of the country In the 30th anniversary year of his murder by right wing fanatics this updated version of the seminal biography of Hani re evaluates his legacy and traces his life from his childhood in rural Transkei to the crisis in the ANC camps in the 1980s and the perilous last 36 months he spent back home rallying for South Africa s freedom Drawing on interviews with those who knew him this vividly written book provides a detailed account of the life of a hero of South Africa s liberation who was both an intellectual and a fighter Mobile Commerce: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources,2017-06-19 In the era of digital technology business transactions and partnerships across borders have become easier than ever As part of this shift in the corporate sphere managers executives and strategists across industries must acclimate themselves with the challenges and opportunities for conducting business Mobile Commerce Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications provides a comprehensive source of advanced academic examinations on the latest innovations and technologies for businesses Including innovative studies on marketing mobile commerce security and wireless handheld devices this multi volume book is an ideal source for researchers scholars business executives professionals and graduate level students Lives of the Artists, Lives of the Architects Hans Ulrich Obrist,2015-05-07 A unique opportunity to learn about the lives and creativity of the world s leading artists Hans Ulrich Obrist has been conducting ongoing conversations with the world s greatest living artists since he began in Switzerland aged 19 with Fischli and Weiss Here he chooses nineteen of the greatest figures and presents their conversations offering the reader intimacy with the artists and insight into their creative processes Inspired by the great Vasari Lives of the Artists explores the meaning of art and artists today their varying approaches to creating and a sense of how their thinking evolves over time Including David Hockney Gilbert and George Gerhard Richter Michelangelo Pistoletto Marina Abramovic Louise Bourgeois Rem Koolhaas Jeff Koons and Oscar Niemayer this is a wonderful and unique book for those interested in modern art Hans Ulrich Obrist is a curator and writer Since 2006 he has been co director of the Serpentine Gallery London He is the author with Ai Wei Wei of Ai Wei Wei Speaks Mergers and Alliances in Higher Education Adrian Curaj,Luke Georghiou,Jennifer Cassingena Harper,Eva Egron-Polak,2015-03-31 This volume casts light on mergers and alliances in higher education by examining developments of this type in different countries It combines the direct experiences of those at the heart of such transformations university leaders and senior officials responsible for higher education policy with expert analysts of the systems concerned Higher education in Europe faces a series of major challenges The economic crisis has accelerated expectations of an increased role in addressing economic and societal challenges while at the same time putting pressure on available finances Broader trends such as shifting student demographics and expectations globalisation and mobility and new ways of working with business have contributed to these increased pressures In the light of these trends there have been moves both from national or regional agencies and from individual institutions to respond by combining resources either through collaborative arrangements or more fundamentally through mergers between two or more universities After an introductory chapter by the editors which establishes the context for mergers and alliances the book falls into two main parts Part 1 takes a national or regional perspective to give some sense of the historical context the wider drivers and the importance of these developments in these cases Included are both systemic accounts for countries as France Sweden Romania Russia Wales and England and specific cross cutting initiatives including a major facility at Magurele in Romania and a Spanish programme for promoting international campuses of excellence Part 2 is built from specific cases of universities either in mergers or alliances with examples from different countries such as France UK Romania Spain Germany Denmark Finland Switzerland A concluding chapter by the editors assesses these experiences and indicates the implications and future needs for understanding in this domain The Fires Beneath Seán Morrow,2016-06-01 The life of Monica Wilson is a story of groundbreaking scholarship passionate creativity and personal tragedy during South Africa s bitter and divided twentieth century As a young anthropologist in the 1930s Monica immersed herself in the lives work and beliefs of African communities in southern and East Africa while carefully observing the effects of historical change At the core of her existence was her intellectual collaboration and intense personal relationship with her husband the brilliant but clinically depressive Godfrey Wilson who took his own life in 1944 After Godfrey s death Monica raised their two children and built a career as a leading academic at Fort Hare Rhodes University College and the University of Cape Town In a political environment where black academics were under constant threat and ideas were censored she outspokenly advocated racial equality and freedom of speech her publications emphasising a common South African identity and implicitly challenging apartheid separate development This fascinating biography moves between the Eastern Cape Cambridge Tanganyika Nyasaland Northern Rhodesia and Cape Town It explores the relationship between anthropology and history and the tensions between liberalism Christianity Marxism and apartheid ideology Drawing on the letters and diaries left by Monica and Godfrey Wilson this is a powerful story about politics race war faith love and loss The Intercollegian, 1961 Debates of the Transkei Legislative Assembly Transkei (South Africa). Legislative Assembly, 1964

Anchored in Place Leslie Bank, Nico Cloete, 2018-11-05 Tensions in South African universities have traditionally centred around equity particularly access and affordability historical legacies such as apartheid and colonialism and the shape and structure of the higher education system What has not received sufficient attention is the contribution of the university to place based development This volume is the first in South Africa to engage seriously with the place based developmental role of universities In the international literature and policy there has been an increasing integration of the university with place based development especially in cities This volume weighs in on the debate by drawing attention to the place based roles and agency of South African universities in their local towns and cities It acknowledges that universities were given specific development roles in regions homelands and towns under apartheid and comments on why sub national place based development has not been a key theme in post apartheid higher education planning Given the developmental crisis in the country universities could be expected to play a more constructive and meaningful role in the development of their own precincts cities and regions But what should that role be Is there evidence that this is already occurring in South Africa despite the lack of a national policy framework What plans and programmes are in place and what is needed to expand the development agency of universities at the local level Who and what might be involved Where should the focus lie and who might benefit most and why Is there a need perhaps to approach the challenges of college towns secondary cities and metropolitan centers differently This book poses some of these questions as it considers the experiences of a number of South African universities including Wits Pretoria Nelson Mandela University and especially Fort Hare as one of its post centenary challenges
