She and Allan Sir H Rider Haggard,2020-04-11 I believe it was the old Egyptians a very wise people probably indeed much wiser than we know for in the leisure of their ample centuries they had time to think out things who declared that each individual personality is made up of six or seven different elements although the Bible only allows us three namely body soul and spirit The body that the man or woman wore if I understand their theory aright which perhaps I an ignorant person do not was but a kind of sack or fleshly covering containing these different principles Or mayhap it did not contain them all but was simply a house as it were in which they lived from time to time and seldom all together although one or more of them was present continually as though to keep the place warmed and aired This is but a casual illustrative suggestion for what right have I Allan Quatermain out of my little reading and probably erroneous deductions to form any judgment as to the theories of the old Egyptians Still these as I understand them suffice to furnish me with the text that man is not one but many in which connection it may be remembered that often in Scripture he is spoken of as being the home of many demons seven I think Also to come to another far off example the Zulus talk of their witch doctors as being inhabited by a multitude of spirits Anyhow of one thing I am quite sure we are not always the same Different personalities actuate us at different times In one hour passion of this sort or the other is our lord in another we are reason itself In one hour we follow the basest appetites in another we hate them and the spirit arising through our mortal murk shines within or above us like a star In one hour our desire is to kill and spare not in another we are filled with the holiest compassion even towards an insect or a snake and are ready to forgive like a god Everything rules us in turn to such an extent indeed that sometimes one begins to wonder whether we really rule anything She and Allan Sir H Rider Haggard,2021-02-10 She and Allan is a novel by H Rider Haggard first published in 1921 She and Allen Henry Rider Haggard,1980 She and Allan H.
