

The background image shows a white table with various art supplies. On the left, there is a bag of white cotton balls and several bottles of acrylic paint in yellow, white, and blue. In the center, there are two green sponges and a white egg. To the right, there are more bottles of paint, including a large blue one and a smaller dark one. Several small, square pieces of student artwork are scattered on the table. These artworks depict coastal scenes with waves and dark, rocky shorelines, using a palette of blues, whites, and dark tones. A book with a painting of a ship on its cover is visible in the background.
