Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience

Human Rights and Citizenship Education Nektaria Palaiologou, Michalinos Zembylas, 2018-11-21 This volume examines different conceptualizations of human rights citizenship and interculturalism as well as their inter relationships in different national contexts This intersection in its various combinations is explored theoretically pedagogically and practically with the studies investigating whether certain human rights demands reveal patterns that are incompatible with citizenship and multiculturalist claims Contributions also explore the theoretical and practical bases on which human rights citizenship and intercultural education should be grounded as well as how human rights citizenship and intercultural education can join forces to make policy practice and research stronger and more robust The issues explored in this volume continue to feature on policy agendas at local national and international levels at a time when considerable changes are taking place within and across societies Particularly in Europe the current refugee and migration crisis complicates this situation further creating new complex challenges for countries and regions including how to respond

productively and justly to the migration of peoples how to complement existing legal frameworks and modes of governance to face threats to social justice security and social cohesion of political and civil societies and how to develop new rights that increase participation in social and political life especially in groups that are vulnerable and marginalized As shown here however these challenges provide unique opportunities to re imagine the transformative potential of the intersection among intercultural human rights and citizenship education in different situations and contexts The Effects of Race Nina G. Jablonski, Gerhard Mar,,2018-10-15 The STIAS research theme on Being Human Today explores the interrelated questions What does it mean to be human And What is the nature of the world in which we aspire to be human In the context of post apartheid South Africa race and racism remain key references in both these questions Why is this so considering that the biological basis of race thinking has been refuted Templates of race and racialism remain at the core of state policy in South Africa periodic gross incidents of racism surface in public and notions of the existence of races remain central to everyday thinking and discourse This book is the result of the work of a group of leading thinkers and their in depth conversations at STIAS during the winter of 2015 on the effects of race Convened by evolutionary anthropologist Nina Jablonski and sociologist Gerhard Mar the group included Njabulo Ndebele Chabani Manganyi Barney Pityana Crain Soudien G ran Therborn Mikael Hjerm Zimitri Erasmus and George Chaplin The group reconvened annually through 2017 This is the first in a series of planned publications on the their work Chinese and African Entrepreneurs ,2019-03-25 This book offers in depth accounts of encounters between Chinese and African social and economic actors that have been increasing rapidly since the early 2000s With a clear focus on social changes be it quotidian behaviour or specific practices the authors employ multi disciplinary approaches in analysing the various impacts that the intensifying interaction between Chinese and Africans in their roles as ethnic and cultural others entrepreneurial migrants traders employers employees etc have on local developments and transformations within the host societies be they on the African continent or in China The dynamics of social change addressed in case studies cover processes of social mobility through migration adaptation of business practices changing social norms consumption patterns labour relations and mutual perceptions cultural brokerage exclusion and inclusion gendered experiences and powerful imaginations of China Contributors are Karsten Giese Guive Khan Mohammad Katy Lam Ben Lampert Kelly Si Miao Liang Laurence Marfaing Gordon Mathews Giles Mohan Amy Niang Yoon Jung Park Alena Thiel Naima Topkiran Modern State Development, Capacity, and Institutions Derica Lambrechts,2017-07-31 This book makes an important original conceptual and theoretical contribution to our understanding of modern state development the role of the state and the South African transition to democracy Its focus on related concepts such as state capacity political trust and tolerance adds to insights on the dynamics of political and democratic transitions Furthermore the selected focus areas as well as the comparative approach add new insights into the peculiarities of the South African transition state development state capacity and state institutions Its focus on societal dynamics and state society relations is a significant

Beyond the Mountain B Camminga, zethu Matebeni, 2023-02-10 Beyond The Mountain: Queer Life in Africa's Gay Capital contributes to the body of knowledge on the lived experiences of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer and intersex LGBTQI communities in Cape Town. The book provides insight on the lives of the LGBTQI communities in Cape Town and challenges the stereotypes and prejudices against these communities. The chapters consist of both narratives of lived experiences and academic discussions presented by novice as well as experienced scholars. The imagery of beyond the mountain is a depiction of the lives of the LGBTQI community and immovable negative perceptions the general public have of them and seeks to expose their world and the kinds of violence and abuse they are subjected to, as well as unveiling the racial discrimination within these communities. The book revolves around five themes: education, emancipation, protection, acceptance, and integration of those who identify as LGBTQI people in society.

Doctoral Training and Higher Education in Africa Christine Scherer, R. Sooryamoorthy, 2022-05-12 Drawing on insights from across Africa, this book investigates the discourses and practices that guide doctoral training today. Higher education is regarded as key for driving development and innovation, creating an informed knowledge base equipped to tackle local and global challenges. For too long, external forces defined education in the continent, but now African countries are revitalising higher education, designing doctoral training to fit distinctly African needs and contexts. This book investigates the history, present, and future potential of doctoral training on international, regional, national, and institutional levels. Bringing together expertise from both research and practice, the book analyses the frameworks and structures of the doctoral phase and how institutions, supervisors, mentors, and young scholars meet the challenges of training in real life. The book covers issues such as access to education, proactive recruitment, funding issues, practitioner expertise, enrolment, and drop out across a range of countries including South Africa, Mozambique, Ethiopia, Nigeria, Benin, Ghana, and Morocco. This book will be a rich resource for higher education administrators and policy makers, as well as researchers and academics with an interest in higher education in Africa.

Belhar Confession Mary-Anne Plaatjies-Van Huffel, 2017-12-12 The subject of the Belhar Confession is an academic one which has enjoyed international attention, with congregations in the West having adopted it as one of their confessions for use. The content of this book is aimed chiefly at a scholarly community with ample knowledge of confessional documents and is a contribution on the subject of the Belhar Confession. The current challenges to the church and theology are discussed. Racism is one issue that poses an increasingly huge challenge to South Africa today. The book demonstrates what needs to be done, extra, to deal with the scourge of racism that seems to have percolated through virtually all aspects of our existence and particularly the church today in South Africa. e Prof Rothney Tshaka, University of South Africa.

Redeeming Sin? Ernst M. Conradie, 2017-10-11 Can Christian sin talk be retrieved within the public sphere? In this contribution to ecotheology, Ernst M. Conradie argues that amid ecological destruction discourse on sin can contribute to a multidisciplinary depth diagnosis of what has gone wrong in the world He confronts some major obstacles related to the plausibility of sin talk in conversation with evolutionary biology the cognitive sciences and animal ethology He defends an Augustinian insistence that social evil rather than natural evil is our primary predicament If the root cause of social evil is sin then a Christian confession of sin may yet yield good news for the whole earth

Democracy Disconnected

Fiona Anciano, Laurence Piper, 2018-10-03 Why is dissatisfaction with local democracy endemic despite the spread of new participatory institutions This book argues that a key reason is the limited power of elected local officials especially to produce the City City Hall lacks control over key aspects of city decision making especially under conditions of economic globalisation and rapid urbanisation in the urban South Demonstrated through case studies of daily politics in Hout Bay Democracy Disconnected shows how Cape Town residents engage local rule In the absence of democratic control urban rule in the Global South becomes a complex and contingent framework of multiple and multilevel forms of urban governance FUG that involve City Hall but are not directed by it Bureaucratic governance coexists alongside market developmental and informal forms of governance This disconnect of democracy from urban governance segregates people spatially socially but also politically Thus while the residents of Hout Bay may live next to each other they do not live with each other This book will be a valuable resource for students on programmes such as urban studies political science sociology development studies and political geography

Visual Redress in Africa from Indigenous and New Materialist Perspectives Elmarie Costandius, Gera de Villiers, 2023-06-20 Through an indigenous and new materialist thinking approach this book discusses various examples in Africa where colonial public art statues signs and buildings were removed or changed after countries independence An African perspective on these processes will bring new understandings and assist in finding ways to address issues in other countries and continents These often unresolved issues attract much attention but finding ways of working through them requires a deeper and broader approach Contributors propose an African indigenous knowledge perspective in relation to new materialism as alternative approaches to engage with visual redress and decolonisation of spaces in an African context Authors such as Frantz Fanon Ngugi Wa Thiong'o and George Dei will be referred to regarding indigenous knowledge decolonisation and Africanisation and Karen Barad Donna Haraway and Rosi Braidotti regarding new materialism The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual culture heritage studies African studies and architecture
