Miriam Mason, David Galloway

Sierra Leone Bece 2013 Result:

Lessons in School Improvement from Sub-Saharan Africa Miriam Mason, David Galloway, 2021-12-13 Lessons in School Improvement from Sub Saharan Africa describes the planning delivery and evaluation of an improvement programme by EducAid The evaluation showed that children in schools whose teachers had taken part in the programme made more progress in literacy attendance and behaviour than children in control schools Understanding West Africa's Ebola Epidemic Ibrahim Abdullah, Ismail Rashid, 2017-10-15 From 2013 to 2015 over 11 000 people across West Africa lost their lives to the deadliest outbreak of the Ebola virus in history Crucially this epidemic marked the first time the virus was able to spread beyond rural areas to major cities overturning conventional assumptions about its epidemiology With backgrounds ranging from development to disease control the contributors to this volume some of them based in countries affected by the Ebola epidemic consider the underlying factors that shaped this unprecedented outbreak While championing the heroic efforts of local communities and aid workers in halting the spread of the disease the contributors also reveal deep structural problems in both the countries and humanitarian agencies involved which hampered the efforts to contain the epidemic Alarming they show that little has been learned from these events with health provision remaining underfunded and poorly equipped to deal with future outbreaks Such issues they argue reflect the wider challenges we face in tackling epidemic disease in an increasingly interconnected world Primary and Secondary Education in Sierra Leone Collier, Ebenezer, 2016-03-29 Colonial education was instituted in Sierra Leone as a consequence of the activities of British philanthropic and missionary bodies from the late 19th to mid 20th century It was largely in the hands of Christian missionaries introduced in the form of evangelism and as part of Western missionary enterprise Such education basically ignored the achievements and contributions of the indigenous populations and for the most part did not cultivate the African student's self esteem and pride The author gives details of policies programmes and statistical outcomes It is important particularly for policy makers as it may serve as input to the debate on future education policy development and has the potential for contributing to research literature on implementation of educational policies Sierra Leoneans should access the previously lacking and relevant knowledge of the development of education during the fifty years of Independence as presented in this book As such it will also be a valuable resource for college and university lecturers
