Equity Planning with Structuralist Rhetorical Semiotics Rossolatos, George, 2014-01-01 Brand Equity Planning with Structuralist Rhetorical Semiotics furnishes an innovative conceptual model and methodology for brand equity planning with view to addressing a crucial gap in the existing marketing and semiotic literatures concerning how advertising multimodal textual elements may be transformed into brand associations with an emphasis on rhetorical relata as modes of connectivity between a brand s surface and depth grammar The scope of this project is inter disciplinary spanning research areas such as brand equity structuralist semiotics textual semiotics visual and film semiotics multimodal rhetoric Film theory psychoanalysis The proposed connectionist model of the brand trajectory of signification is operationalized through a methodological framework that encompasses a structuralist semiotic interpretative approach to the textual formation of brand equity supported by quantitative content analysis with the aid of the software Atlas ti and the application of multivariate mapping techniques Vocabulary for the Common Core Robert J. Marzano, Julia A. Simms, 2011-02-07 The Common Core State Standards present unique demands on students ability to learn vocabulary and teachers ability to teach it The authors address these challenges in this resource Work toward the creation of a successful vocabulary program guided by both academic and content area terms taken directly from the mathematics and English language arts standards

Psychology and the Poetics of Growth Howard R. Pollio, Jack M. Barlow, Harold J. Fine, Marilyn R. Pollio, 2023-10-01 In this volume originally published in 1977 the authors describe the relevance of figurative language for the psychology of language and present a methodological approach best described as naturalistic in orientation The first section presents the idea of figurative language in terms of linguistic aesthetic and philosophical background Also included is a description of empirical techniques used to assess figurative language and findings from an analysis of widely differing spoken and written contexts The second section of this volume deals with the occurrence and significance of figurative language within the specific context of psychotherapy The use of such language is shown to be crucial in patient insight The third section deals with children their understanding and use of figurative expressions specifically within the school Here is a volume that was an outstanding addition to the literature at the time and still a valuable resource today Text Meaning Hugo Raines, AI, 2025-05-06 Text Meaning explores the intricate process of how we understand literary works asserting that meaning isn't simply embedded within the text Instead it emerges from the dynamic interplay between a text's context language and its interpretation The book emphasizes that a text written during social upheaval carries different connotations than one from a calm period illustrating how historical context shapes potential meanings Further it examines how individual experiences and beliefs inevitably influence understanding The book progresses by first introducing foundational principles like contextual analysis and linguistic theory Subsequent chapters then delve into literary examples demonstrating these principles in action like how critical approaches can yield drastically different interpretations Ultimately Text Meaning argues that understanding this fluid negotiated construct is essential for fostering critical thinking and a nuanced appreciation of literature making it valuable for students and educators alike Differentiation Strategies for Language Arts Wendy Conklin, 2009-08-15 Written specifically for K-12 language arts teachers this resource provides the nuts and bolts of differentiation Presented in an easy to implement format this handy notebook is designed to facilitate the understanding and process of writing differentiated lessons to accommodate all readiness levels learning styles and interests The lessons are based on various differentiation strategies including tiered assignments tiered graphic organizers leveled questions multiple intelligences leveled learning centers problem based learning independent investigations and reading buddies Ad

Applying Differentiation Strategies Wendy Conklin,Christi Sorrell,2009-08-31 Give all learners in secondary grades the opportunity to succeed in the classroom This resource will teach you how to differentiate your lessons through content process and product in order to effectively accommodate all learning levels and styles of l New Horizons in Learning English Iii Tm'99(decs) , Models for Writing Chris Buckton,2000 The Models for Writing books provide a complete programme to teach the writing process through shared guided and extended work Based on the National Literacy Strategy requirements the books feature sentence level focus lively activities and an easy to use solution for differentiation

Reading First Activities, Grade 3 Jennifer Overend Prior,2004-03-23 Contains activities based on the United States Dept of Education s Reading First program Talent Development as a Framework for Gifted Education Paula Olszewski-Kubillus,Rena F. Subotnik,Frank C. Worrell,2021-09-23 Talent development is a phrase often used in reference to the education of gifted children Recently it has been presented by researchers to refer to a specific approach to the delivery of gifted education services Understanding and Teaching Reading Emerald Dechant,2013-09-13 In the words of Aldous Huxley Every man who knows how to read has it in his power to magnify himself to multiply the ways in which he exists to make his life full significant and interesting Few people question the value of reading in fact most extol its virtues As our culture becomes more complex reading plays an increasingly greater role in satisfying personal needs and in promoting social awareness and growth In the last 20 years the teaching of this invaluable skill has focused so intensely on comprehension and prediction from context that it has lost sight of the significance of automaticity and fluency in the word identification process Reading is a synthesis of word recognition and comprehension thus this text is about these basic processes and their integration A common plea from teachers today is that research and psychology be translated into teaching behavior Therefore the aim of this book is twofold one to identify report organize and discuss those bits of data research and theory that are most relevant to the teacher s understanding of the reading process and two to help educators to interpret and apply theory and research data to everyday classroom teaching as well as to the problems encountered frequently in developmental and remedial teaching
