Varghese, Anjana Mangalagiri, A. Mathew, 2023-05-12 This book calls for an equitable and qualitative access to education for all It proposes paradigms of educational governance that are based on coalition building between key stakeholders are grounded in local and cultural contexts sensitive to the language needs of communities It underlines the significance of gender sensitive and inclusive approaches that ensure equity for marginalized children and minorities Based on research based studies the volume focuses on equity quality and learning covering a broad spectrum from school to higher to adult education It discusses the multiple learner deprivations amongst the marginalized communities and the severe impact of events such as pandemics that exacerbate learner inequities and the recent developments in India under the National Education Policy 2020 It also presents research based country experiences in the Asian India Bangladesh China and African Ghana South Africa contexts showing how external influences on the changing priorities in policy perspectives cut across developing countries Compiled in honour of Professor R Govinda this volume of insightful articles will be of interest to students and researchers of educational policy and studies sociology of education equity and human rights It will also be useful for decision makers and think tanks

Government Managing Risk Bruce Chapman, 2006-09-27 Higher education rates are increasing throughout the Western world yet at the same time government budgets face increasing constraints This has ensured that the importance of student support is recognized in many countries In recent years there has been a world wide movement towards the use of income contingent loans ICL for higher education ICLs are now used in six countries following the Australian innovation of 1989 with the governments of many more countries looking very seriously at the model This impressive new book by Bruce Chapman analyzes ICLs particularly their use in supporting students exploring the experiences of a number of other countries adopting them Chapman presents analysis of a number of disparate case studies to illustrate how ICLs can aid risk management policy reforming in both progressive and administratively feasible ways This book describes examines and promotes an exciting new role for the public sector as a manager of risk and argues that ICLs have enormous potential to change the extent and nature of social and economic activities With the author's experience in the design and implementation of the Australian student financial support schemes this is a knowledgeable informative and enlightening book that will be useful to researchers students and policy makers alike

OECD Development Policy Tools Evidence-based Policy Making for Youth Well-being A Toolkit OECD, 2017-10-17 With 1.2 billion people today's youth population aged 15-24 represents the largest cohort ever to enter the transition to adulthood Close to 90% of these young people live in developing countries and the numbers will practically double in the least developed countries

Mergers and Alliances in Higher Education Adrian Curaj, Luke Georghiou, Jennifer Cassingena Harper, Eva Egron-Polak, 2015-03-31 This volume casts light on mergers and alliances in higher education by examining developments of this type in different countries It combines the direct experiences of those at the heart of such transformations university leaders and senior officials responsible for higher education policy with expert analysts of the systems concerned Higher education in Europe faces a series of major challenges The economic crisis has accelerated expectations of an increased role in addressing economic and societal challenges while at the same time putting pressure on available finances Broader trends such as shifting student demographics and expectations globalisation and mobility and new ways of working with business have contributed to these increased pressures In the light of these trends there have been moves both from national or regional agencies and from individual institutions to respond by combining resources either through collaborative arrangements or more fundamentally through mergers between two or more universities After an introductory chapter by the editors which establishes the context for mergers and alliances the book falls into two main parts Part 1 takes a national or regional perspective to give some sense of the historical context the wider drivers and the importance of these developments in these cases Included are both systemic accounts for countries as France Sweden Romania Russia Wales and England and specific cross cutting initiatives including a major facility at Magurele in Romania and a Spanish programme for promoting international campuses of excellence Part 2 is built from specific cases of universities either in mergers or alliances with examples from different countries such as France UK Romania Spain Germany Denmark Finland Switzerland A concluding chapter by the editors assesses these experiences and indicates the implications and future needs for understanding in this domain Universities,

Employability and Human Development Melanie Walker, Samuel Fongwa, 2017-01-20 The book makes a significant contribution to critical higher education studies specifically to graduate employability research and to capabilities and education research The book moves beyond the simplistic conception of alleged gaps in graduate skills and mismatches between employers and universities and instead provides an innovative multi dimensional and intersectional human capabilities conceptualisation of graduate employability The book challenges an individualised notion of employability instead locating employability issues in social and economic conditions and argues that employability choices cannot be divorced from inequality Qualitative and quantitative data from multiple case study universities in South Africa are used to explore the perceptions and experiences of diverse students lecturers support officers and employers regarding what each university is doing or should be doing to enhance graduate economic opportunities and contribute to inclusive development The book will be highly relevant to students scholars and researchers in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in graduate employability Handbook of the Economics of Education Eric A.
