

Through the Jungle

a rhyme from India

Through the jungle the elephant goes,
Swaying his trunk to and fro,
Munching, crunching, tearing trees,
Stamping seeds, eating leaves.
His eyes are small, his feet are fat,
Hey, elephant, don't behave like that.

It's a Jungle Out There: Animal Poems for Adult Children Larry Burgdorf, 2013-01-29 This book had its beginnings at an altitude of about 35 000 feet The Author served for thirty five years in the ministry following which he became Director of a charitable foundation with interests in many parts of the world As such he spent a lot of time in airplanes He discovered that writing light poetry was a challenging and enjoyable way to use the time spent in the air The initial impetus for poems having to do with animals came from a grandchild who wanted a poem about a hippopotamus When the author discovered that there were not many readily available on demand he simply wrote one The poems in this little volume are mostly whimsical occasionally offering a homey moral for the reader to take or leave as he sees fit Sharing the Journey:
