

OUR MEMORIES

by Lenore Hetrick

If we remember those who are gone
Then they live again.
They are here once more, they smile and speak,
Just as do living men.

So let us give our thoughts to the brave,
Upon this Memorial Day.
In spiritual fellowship let us speak,
And listen to what they say.

For a soldier who died for his country must know
Much that he could tell,
And if we caught the message it might
Serve us oft and well.

So in our memories let the dead
Linger often and long.
Recollections of that kind live,
And are like a springtime song.

Lamkin, 1929 Our Deceased Loved Ones Communicating with Us Ted Baxter, 2015-05-19 This book summarizes seventy of my honoring the dead books that I was directed to write by the dead The dead would direct me in my dreams usually within a week after they die to write a book for their loved ones They would tell me what to write what photographs to use and to whom to send the book This is the reason why I had decided to publish this book The dead don't forget you after they die Don't forget them People don't change after they die I've had many good experiences and a few very bad experiences with them If I was able to communicate with the dead you can too It's a very interesting story how I had acquired this capability which I discussed in this book I was not born with that capability I also discuss two of my prior lifetimes which have also helped me communicate with the dead These are all things that I suggest that you know about It all helps like it has helped me It's all true and it can be verified in the seventy books that I have written This book summarizes what is in those seventy books This book gives a number of examples that nothing happens by accident You can be whatever you want to be I did it and you can do it too In this lifetime I meet my mother in my 1620 AD lifetime who had given me my current capabilities Statistics of Land-grant Colleges and Universities United States.
