Ancient and Indigenous Wisdom Traditions in the Americas Ehaab Abdou, Theodore Zervas, 2024-08-01 This book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures, histories and wisdom traditions. With a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures, it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts. The book offers a range of important studies from various contexts across the Americas including Canada, the various member nations of the Caribbean Community (CARICOM), Puerto Rico and the United States. The various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study. The contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions, misrepresentations and marginalization. In addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures, the book charts a path forward toward more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond. It will appeal to scholars, researchers, undergraduate and graduate students with interests in Indigenous education, curriculum studies, citizenship education, history of education, religion and educational policy. Resources in Education, 1998-07 Jamaican National Bibliography, 1998 Resources in Education, 1996 Departmental Reports to Council - University of the West Indies University of the West Indies (Mona, Jamaica), 1981 Caribbean Tourism, 1984 *Official Guide and Catalogue to the ...
