Fascism's Rise in Italy

Why did fascist parties rise in Italy?

There were many of the Great Depression led to the loss of democracy in many countries. The fascist leaders, millions of people wanted to change system to any authoritarian government. They felt the government of Italy was not working. They believed in authority and built powerful military forces. Fascist governments were controlled by one party and that party controlled the economy. The leader was the nation's dictator. Fascist governments did not let their people have their school rights.

Fascism came to Italy. It started when Benito Mussolini came along. He said that the government was not working and that the people should follow him. He said that the government was not working and that the people should follow him. He said that the government was not working and that the people should follow him. He said that the government was not working and that the people should follow him.

Mussolini became the leader of the fascist party in Italy. He controlled all political parties except his own. He tried to control the economy and the social system.
